Expect Nagy To Outline Plans

Ousted Hungarian Prime Minister, Now In U. S., To Set Forth Proposals

By JOHN A. REICHMANN
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, June 17.—(INS)—Nagy, whose forced resignation as Hungarian prime minister brought about the current crisis in his country, today was expected to set forth his future plans in opposition to communist control of Hungary.

Speculation on Nagy's future course centered on the possibility that he would attempt to set up a "free government-in-exile." However, it was believed more likely that he simply would remain in Washington to serve as a center for resistance elements who might rally around him.

It was believed that the state department would prefer the latter course since this would eliminate the need for deciding whether it would recognize his group or the Budapest government as the legitimate regime.

At present no thought is being given to the possibility of severing diplomatic relations with the Budapest regime, although its legality will undoubtedly be challenged by the United States for some time.

Nagy is in the United States ostensibly as a political refugee under grant of asylum following his allegedly forced resignation while on vacation in Switzerland. He is known to have been in conversation with some United States representatives in Bern before coming to the United States.

The company's loss was one of the largest in the history of the province. The haul included contents of some 35 safety deposit boxes, contents of which are yet unknown.

By ROBERT G. NIXON
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

PRINCETON, N. J., June 17.—President Truman declared today that universal training is a "military necessity" for the United States to help weaker nations to resist "the encroachments of totalitarian pressures."

The chief executive, addressing Princeton university at its bi-centennial, declared:

"Weakness on our part would stir fear among small or weakened nations that we were giving up our world leadership... we must not let friendly nations go by default."

Legislature Is Still In Session

Expect That Final Gavel Of State Session Will Fall Late Today

HARRISBURG, June 17.—(INS)—Pennsylvania's Republican-dominated General Assembly worked against the clock today to put the finishing touches to a legislative program announced by Gov. James H. Duff more than six months ago.

Leaders hoped the final gavel would fall late today, but difficulties attending bill drafting may force an extension which could delay final adjournment several hours.

A series of labor curbing bills was on Duff's desk as sine die adjournment neared, but a measure carrying top G. O. P. support which would have codified penal laws was tabled by the House.

The failure to press for a final vote may spell death for the bill, although the codification may be called up for a roll call vote if sufficient pressure is exerted by administration supporters.

Both houses quit today shortly before two o'clock, and were scheduled to resume seven hours later. House leaders expected to adjourn sine die before six p. m., but chairmen were not so optimistic. The assembly convened January 7.

Second Flood In Week Moves Down From Iowa

New Danger Is Created By Flood Stages Along Mississippi River

KEOKUK, Ia., June 17.—(INS)—The second flood within a week from rampaging Iowa river moved down the Mississippi river today, creating new danger on a 100-mile stretch from Keokuk to Clarksville, Mo.

At Quincy, Ill., Army engineers said the flood probably would equal that of last week which caused four deaths in the Ottumwa, Ia., area and millions of dollars in damage to rich farm land.

Evacuation orders were sent out to persons living along the river bottoms in the threatened area by Army engineers who said the flood as expected to crest at Quincy some time tomorrow. Several hundred persons already had been evacuated.

The flood crested at Keosauqua, Ia., yesterday and inundated a large section of the business district. Water in some places reached a depth of nine feet, and telephone operators were taken to the marooned telephone exchange in rowboats.

Estimate 700 Ships Tied Up By Strike Move

NEW YORK, June 17.—(INS)—The sit-in strike of 100,000 CIO maritime workers gathered momentum today despite efforts to reach a settlement.

An estimated 700 ships were immobilized in Atlantic, Pacific and Gulf ports.

John W. Gibson, assistant secretary of labor and an ace government negotiator arranged a conference today with union officials and ship operators but there appeared little prospect of a quick settlement.

New Technique

The sit-in strike introduced a new technique in labor relations. Joseph Curran, president of the National Maritime Union ordered his men to remain aboard the ships but not to sign for another voyage and to do no work. He said no strike or walkout had been called.

Curran added: "The men will stay on the ships until they are kicked off or until the owners agree to a new contract."

However, the NMU ordered 600 members of the crew of the U. S. liner America to quit the ship at noon.

Officials of the United States lines, operators of the American, largest United States passenger liner, said there had been no change in plans for the America to sail Wednesday for Europe.

Yacht Murders Jury Panel Is Near Completion

SANTA ANA, Calif., June 17.—(INS)—The Overell murder trial gave promise today of finally moving out of the doldrums in which it has been all but bogged since it opened on May 28.

Completion of the jury after three weeks of jockeying by defense and prosecution, was in sight.

In fact, Z. B. West, one of the attorneys for heiress Beulah Louise Overell, said the panel would be completed today.

There was some doubt that his predictions would be fulfilled, but it was evident that selection of the jury was, at long last, in the final stages.

Report Second Confession Made Man Killed Three

CHICAGO, June 17.—(INS)—Ralph W. Lobaugh, 30, of Kokomo, Ind., broke down and confessed for the second time today that he attacked and murdered three Fort Wayne, Ind., women in 1944 and 1945.

The confession was announced by Fort Wayne police officers who brought Lobaugh, a bridegroom of one month, to Chicago to undergo a lie detector test.

The officers—Police Chief Jules Stamps and Lt. Chester Axt—said that Lobaugh made his second confession while being questioned under the Polygraph lie detector device by Dr. Leonard Keeler, Northwestern University criminologist and psychiatrist.

Chief Stamps said that Dr. Keeler had turned on a recorder which transcribed Lobaugh's statement.

Previously, Lobaugh had continued to repudiate the first confession he made last week to police in Kokomo.

At that time, Kokomo police said he confessed he attacked and murdered Miss Billie Haaga, 38, and Miss Anna Kuzett, 22, in 1944, and Mrs. Dorothea Howard, 36, in 1945.

House Fails To Override Veto On Tax Cut Bill

House Vote Is 268-137, Two Votes Less Than Two Thirds Required

TAX REDUCTION DEAD FOR SESSION

(BULLETIN)

WASHINGTON, June 17.

—(INS)—The House by a margin of only two votes today sustained President Truman's veto of the four billion dollar tax reduction bill, killing any chance of a tax cut this year.

The vote in favor of overriding the veto was 268 to 137, two votes less than the two-thirds majority required by the constitution.

A recapitulation was demanded by Majority Leader Haleck (R) Ind., immediately after the result was announced.

Count Correct.

The recapitulation showed that the 268-137 count was correct.

Speaker Martin announced to the House:

"The recapitulation affirms the announcement of the chair."

He then formally announced that the president's veto had been sustained. There was wild applause from the Democratic side while Republicans sat glumly in their seats.

The House now has 430 members, five seats being vacant. Today's vote was cast by 405 members.

Britain Asks New Interview With Molotov

LONDON, June 17.—(INS)—A foreign office spokesman revealed today that the British government has asked its ambassador in Moscow to ask for another interview with Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov in connection with the Communist coup in Hungary.

British reports said the ambassador, Sir Maurice Peterson, was instructed to submit a strongly worded memorandum on the issue to Molotov, who previously rejected a British request for information on developments in Budapest.

Reject Molotov's Arguments

It was understood the memorandum rejects in strong terms Molotov's arguments that a British request for the evidence used to force the resignation of Premier Ferenc Nagy constituted interference in Hungary's internal affairs.

Sir Maurice was instructed to point out again that the British government, in making the request for information, considers itself fully within its rights under the constitution of the Allied Control commission in Hungary.

The memorandum was said to emphasize the leading role played by Soviet Lt. Gen. V. P. Sviridov in the Nagy ouster.

He's a grandpa and proud of the honor, grandpa and child doing fine, but I think he should pass out some high grade cigars—the weather is seventy-nine.

Second Flood In Week Moves Down From Iowa

New Danger Is Created By Flood Stages Along Mississippi River

KEOKUK, Ia., June 17.—(INS)—The second flood within a week from rampaging Iowa river moved down the Mississippi river today, creating new danger on a 100-mile stretch from Keokuk to Clarksville, Mo.

At Quincy, Ill., Army engineers said the flood probably would equal that of last week which caused four deaths in the Ottumwa, Ia., area and millions of dollars in damage to rich farm land.

Evacuation orders were sent out to persons living along the river bottomlands in the threatened area by Army engineers who said the flood as expected to crest at Quincy some time tomorrow. Several hundred persons already had been evacuated.

The flood crested at Keosauqua, Ia., yesterday and inundated a large section of the business district. Water in some places reached a depth of nine feet, and telephone operators were taken to the marooned telephone exchange in row-boats.

Yacht Murders Jury Panel Is Near Completion

SANTA ANA, Calif., June 17.—(INS)—The Overell murder trial gave promise today of finally moving out of the doldrums in which it has been all but becalmed since it opened on May 26.

Completion of the jury after three weeks of jockeying by defense and prosecution, was in sight. In fact, Z. B. West, one of the attorneys for heiress Beulah Louise Overell, said the panel would be completed today.

There was some doubt that his predictions would be fulfilled, but it was evident that selection of the jury was, at long last, in the final stages.

Report Second Confession Made Man Killed Three

CHICAGO, June 17.—(INS)—Ralph W. Lobaugh, 30, of Kokomo, Ind., broke down and confessed for a second time today that he attacked and murdered three Fort Wayne, Ind., women in 1944 and 1945.

The confession was announced by Fort Wayne police officers who brought Lobaugh, a bridegroom of one month, to Chicago to undergo a lie detector test.

The officers—Police Chief Jules Stamps and Lt. Chester Axt—said that Lobaugh made his second confession while being questioned under the Polygraph lie detector device by Dr. Leonard Keeler, Northwestern University criminologist and psychiatrist.

Chief Stamps said that Dr. Keeler had turned on a recorder which transcribed Lobaugh's statement. Previously, Lobaugh had continued to repudiate the first confession he made last week to police in Kokomo.

At that time, Kokomo police said he confessed he attacked and murdered Miss Billie Haaga, 38, and Miss Anna Kuzeff, 22, in 1944, and Mrs. Dorothea Howard, 36, in 1945.

House Fails To Override Veto On Tax Cut Bill

House Vote Is 268-137, Two Votes Less Than Two Thirds Required

TAX REDUCTION DEAD FOR SESSION

(BULLETIN)

WASHINGTON, June 17.—(INS)—The House by a margin of only two votes today sustained President Truman's veto of the four billion dollar tax reduction bill, killing any chance of a tax cut this year.

The vote in favor of overriding the veto was 268 to 137, two votes less than the two-thirds majority required by the constitution.

A recapitulation was demanded by Majority Leader Halleck (R) Ind., immediately after the result was announced.

Count Correct

The recapitulation showed that the 268-137 count was correct. Speaker Martin announced to the House:

"The recapitulation affirms the announcement of the chair."

He then formally announced that the president's veto had been sustained. There was wild applause from the Democratic side while Republicans sat glumly in their seats.

The House now has 430 members, five seats being vacant. Today's vote was cast by 405 members.

Action Is Surprise

The action came as a surprise, since it had appeared highly improbable that the Republican-dominated House would sustain the

Britain Asks New Interview With Molotov

LONDON, June 17.—(INS)—A foreign office spokesman revealed today that the British government has asked its ambassador in Moscow to ask for another interview with Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov in connection with the Communist coup in Hungary.

Unofficial reports said the ambassador, Sir Maurice Peterson, was instructed to submit a strongly worded memorandum on the issue to Molotov, who previously rejected a British request for information on developments in Budapest.

It was understood the memorandum rejects in strong terms Molotov's arguments that a British request for the evidence used to force the resignation of Premier Ferenc Nagy constituted interference in Hungary's internal affairs.

Sir Maurice was instructed to point out again that the British government, in making the request for information, considers itself fully within its rights under the constitution of the Allied Control commission in Hungary.

The memorandum was said to emphasize the leading role played by Soviet Lieut. Gen. V. P. Sviridov in the Nagy ouster.

He's a grandpa and proud of the honor, grandpa and child doing fine, but I think he should pass out some high grade cigars—the weather is seventy-nine.

To Name Allied Industry Experts To Assist Japan

Number From Each Nation To Help Japan Reform Trade Will Be Ascertained

WASHINGTON, June 17.—The number of industry representatives from each nation participating in the resumption of Japan's international trade is expected to be set forth in a far eastern commission policy decision before the end of the month.

The FEC's inter-allied trade board is now working toward completion of a formula for allocating 400 permits for businessmen to visit Japan to negotiate contracts for export of products from Japanese industry. A final decision may follow of the board June 24, high officials said, adding that an early allocation policy is necessary to permit the traders' entry into Japan August 15, the date set for reopening Japan's private commercial channels.

LOSS OF TEETH IN TWO MISHAPS DIVORCE GROUNDS

CHICAGO, June 17.—(INS)—Mrs. Kathleen J. Dammann, 28, doesn't like to have her teeth knocked out a second time, particularly the false ones she put in after the first accident in her husband's car.

She convinced Judge John A. Sbarbaro of that and today she held a divorce from her husband, Edward, Jr. 28.

Mrs. Dammann said she was burned up in 1941 when Edward fell asleep at the wheel of his car and she lost three teeth in the crash that followed. But when, in a similar accident two years later, she lost the three false teeth, that, she said, caused her to sue for divorce.

Bill Would Cut Income Taxes For Married People

HARRISBURG, June 17.—(INS)—The Senate today concurred in House amendments and sent to Gov. James H. Duff the "community property" bill that reportedly would save married Pennsylvanians $100,000,000 a year in income tax payments.

Sponsored by Sen. John W. Lord, Jr., (R) Philadelphia, the measure was sent to the Senate for concurrence on minor amendments. The bill provided for equal distribution of property acquired after marriage in cases of divorce.

House Majority Leader Herbert P. Sogrg urged passage of the bill "to give married people an opportunity to avail themselves of a system that will accomplish income tax reductions denied by Congress."

During a stormy, hour long debate, Democrats attacked the bill as fashioned to accommodate persons with high income brackets.

American Indians often polished fragments of coal for ornaments or used powdered coal in paint.

UNIVERSAL TRAINING MILITARY NECESSITY FOR U. S. SAYS TRUMAN

economy through the maintenance of a large standing armed force.

"The justification for universal military training is its military necessity."

The chief executive warned that weakness on the part of the United States breeds contempt among the strong and fear and uncertainty among the smaller and weaker countries looking to this nation for help.

Truman Receives Degree

The chief executive will be away from the nation's capital while Republican proponents of the $4,000,000 tax reduction bill seek to override a Presidential veto.

He receives a degree together with a number of other distinguished persons, including Viscount Alexander, the Canadian governor general; Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, Admiral Chester W. Nimitz and Vannevar Bush.

President Truman made the principal address at the convocation at 12:30 p. m. A luncheon honoring him followed the ceremony of conferring the degrees.

The President will reboard his special train later in the afternoon, returning to Washington in the early evening.

Can't Bear Whole Burden

President Truman also told the world today that the United States cannot bear the whole burden of healing the economic wounds left by the second world war.

In referring to the job of world rehabilitation the President gave tacit support to the call of Herbert Hoover for a checkrein on aid abroad when he said:

"It is a task too great for us, or any other nation, to undertake alone."

"Even though we are contributing generously and wholeheartedly, no single nation has the means to set the world straight."

"It is a job for all the nations to do together."

The President said that, "generosity of impulse and abundant good will are not enough to insure the political stability essential to social and economic reconstruction."

HOUSE FAILS TO OVERRIDE VETO ON TAX CUT BILL

President's rejection of the GOP-sponsored measure as "inflationary and unfair."

The House Majority Leader Halclock (R) Ind., immediately demanded a recapitulation as soon as the speaker announced the vote.

The clerk was ordered to call the names of those who voted in the affirmative and the names of those who voted in the negative.

Last Say This Year

Speaker Martin (R) Mass., declared "this is the last say on taxes this year" and observed that "Congress may have to wait until there is a Republican president" before taking further action on tax reduction.

Rep. Knutson (R) Minn., sponsor of the bill, also declared that no new tax legislation would be enacted before July adjournment date.

As a result of the House vote sustaining the veto, no further action is required by the Senate, which would have voted tomorrow had the lower branch overridden the president.

"President Out On Hook"

Knutson commented: "The president got himself out on a hook and as far as I'm concerned, he's stuck."

Republican leaders had expected that the veto would be overridden by a substantial margin.

The president's declaration that the bill offered "the wrong kind of tax reduction, at the wrong time," was scathingly assailed by proponents of the measure and stoutly defended by opponents.

GOP leaders accused Mr. Truman of resorting to "cold-blooded politics" in vetoing the bill.

Bootlegging Of Cigarets Would Be Hit In State

HARRISBURG, June 17.—(INS)—The House today passed by a vote of 153-43 and sent to Gov. James H. Duff legislation that would outlaw possession of a carton or more of untaxed cigarettes.

Sponsored by Sen. Jacob W. Carr (R) Butler, the measure would subject violators to $25 fines or prison sentences of one day for each dollar of unpaid fines.

The bill was a companion measure of legislation sent to the governor earlier that would bring state police into a campaign to frustrate possible cigarette bootlegging stemming from the increased tax on smokes.

UNIVERSAL TRAINING MILITARY NECESSITY FOR U. S. SAYS TRUMAN

economy through the maintenance of a large standing armed force.

"The justification for universal military training is its military necessity."

The chief executive warned that weakness on the part of the United States breeds contempt among the strong and fear and uncertainty among the smaller and weaker countries looking to this nation for help.

Truman receives Degree

The chief executive will be away from the nation's capital while Republican proponents of the $4,000,000,000 tax reduction bill seek to overcome a Presidential veto.

He receives a degree together with a number of other distinguished persons, including Viscount Alexander, the Canadian governor general; Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, Admiral Chester W. Nimitz and Vannevar Bush.

President Truman made the principal address at the convocation at 12:30 p. m. A luncheon honoring him followed the ceremony of conferring the degrees.

The President will rebound his special train later in the afternoon, returning to Washington in the early evening.

Can't Bear Whole Burden

President Truman also told the world today that the United States cannot bear the whole burden of healing the economic wounds left by the second world war.

In referring to the job of world rehabilitation the President gave tacit support to the call of Herbert Hoover for a chestnut on aid abroad when he said:

"It is a task too great for us, or any other nation, to undertake alone."

"Even though we are contributing generously and wholeheartedly, no single nation has the means to set the world aright."

"It is a job for all the nations to do together."

The President said that "generosity of impulse and abundant good will are not enough to insure the political stability essential to social and economic reconstruction."

HOUSE FAILS TO OVERRIDE VETO ON TAX CUT BILL

President's rejection of the GOP-sponsored measure as "inflationary and unfair."

The House Majority Leader Hallett (R) Ind., immediately demanded a re-vote as soon as the speaker announced the vote.

The clerk was ordered to call the names of those who voted in the affirmative and then the votes of those who voted in the negative.

Last Say This Year

Speaker Martin (R) Mass., declared "this is the last say on taxes this year" and observed that "Congress may have to wait until there is a Republican president" before taking further action on tax reduction.

Rep. Knutson (R) Minn., sponsor of the bill also declared that no new tax legislation would be enacted before July adjournment date.

As a result of the House vote sustaining the veto, no further action is required by the Senate, which would have voted tomorrow had the lower branch overridden the president.

"President Out On Hook"

Knutson commented: "The president got himself out on a hook and as far as I'm concerned, he's stuck."

Republicans had expected that the veto would be overridden by a substantial margin.

The president's declaration that the bill offered "the wrong kind of tax reduction, at the wrong time" was scathingly assailed by proponents of the measure and stoutly defended by opponents.

GOE leaders around Mr. Truman of resorting to "cold-blooded politics" in vetoing the bill.

Bootlegging Of Cigarets Would Be Hit In State

HARRISBURG, June 17.—(INS)—The House today passed by a vote of 153-43 and sent to Gov. James H. Duff legislation that would outlaw possession of a carton or more of untaxed cigarettes.

Sponsored by Sen. Jacob W. Carr (R) Butler, the measure would subject violators to $25 fines or prison sentences of one day for each dollar of untaxed fines.

The bill was a companion measure of legislation sent to the governor earlier that would bring state police into a campaign to frustrate possible cigarette bootlegging stemming from the increased tax on smokes.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Deiger, 1116 West Washington street are in receipt of a letter from Sophia, Bulgaria, written in the language of that country. The letter was received in response to clothing sent last fall to Europe. The couple cannot read the letter and would appreciate a translation so as to know what the grateful Bulgarians have to say.

Little nine year old Concetta Marie Coci, 15 West South street, found a surprise in the potato bag recently when she was helping her mother prepare supper. It wasn't Mickey Mouse but it must have been a kin of his. A new potato, a bit larger than an egg with two well proportioned ears and a wart nose was found by the little girl in the potato bag. She drew in a month and two eyes which made quite a resemblance of Mickey himself.

LIGHTER LIGHT COSTS

WILMINGTON, Del.—(INS)—Electric lamps are putting in a longer work week claimed Samuel G. Hibben. He is the director of applied lighting at Westinghouse and blames the above conditions on windowless factories and towering office buildings. He said, "around-the-clock lighting is now routine in many industries." Lighting would be better if it didn't cost so much. Hibben claimed, and Westinghouse is cutting cost by increasing efficiency of light sources and reflections. And, he added, "for every such improvement there should be a corresponding increased usage of light."

She was attired in a white broadcloth taffeta gown and carried yellow roses. Miss Ruth E. Weinschenk, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid. She appeared in a gown of white marquisette and carried pink roses. Both wore head bands of flowers, matching their bouquets.

Kenneth H. Meine acted as best man for his brother, while Warren McQuiston, Youngstown, O., served as usher.

Nuptial music was offered by Miss Mary Aiken, accompanist for Delbert Meek, Youngstown, who sang "I Love You Truly," "Oh, Promise Me," "One Alone" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Following the wedding a reception for 150 guests took place in the ballroom of The Castleton hotel.

Upon returning from a trip to Canada and New York state, the young couple will reside during the summer months at the home of the bride's parents.

The bride, a graduate of Shenandoah high school, has been employed as secretary by the Bennington Manufacturing Co., Inc., New York City. Mr. Meine, a graduate of Liberty high school, Youngstown, is now affiliated with the Meine Floral company of this city. The groom, who was attached to the U. S. army for four years, saw service in the Southwest Pacific area.

GUNTHER-LAPINSKY

CHURCH WEDDING

At a candlelight ceremony in Christ Lutheran church Saturday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, united in marriage Miss Olga Gunther, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Gunther, of 818 Bonzo street and Michael Lapinsky, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Lapinsky of Princeton, Rev. Walter E. Sommerfeld of Wilkesburg, officiated at the double ring service in front of the altar flanked with palms, ferns and bouquets of white gladioli and carnations.

On the arm of her father, the bride, wearing a gown of white chiffon fashioned with a sweetheart neckline approached the altar. Her fingertip veil fell from a beaded crown and she carried a white prayer book, topped with a corsage of white rose buds and gardenias and streamers of stephanotis. Her only jewelry was a double strand of pearls, gifts from the groom.

As her sister's maid of honor, Miss Martha Gunther wore a gown of blue marquisette and matching shoulder length veil and carried an arm bouquet of mixed flowers. Miss Emma Gunther, cousin of the bride and Miss Jane Lapinsky, sister of the groom were gownned alike in harmonizing shades of pink and yellow and also carried arm bouquets of mixed spring flowers.

Ashley Stevenson of Princeton served the groom as best man and ushers were Henry Gunther and John Lapinsky.

Proceeding the ceremony, Miss Jane Lapinsky, accompanied by Mrs. Hil-da Klamer at the organ sang "O Perfect Love."

At the close of the ceremony, 92 guests were served at the reception in the church parlors. On the bride's table spring flowers carried out the pink, blue and yellow color scheme. A three-tiered wedding cake centered the table. Aides were Mrs. August Gunther, Mrs. Edward Gunther, Mrs. George Schlumberger and Mrs. F. Reiter.

Mr. and Mrs. Lapinsky departed by motor for a wedding trip to an undisclosed destination and upon their return will make their home for the time being with the groom's parents.

Washington Calling

By Marquis Childs

"Voice of America" Opposition, Like Plot

WASHINGTON, June 17.—Behind the furious huffing and puffing in the House over the voice of America broadcasts was something very like a concerted plot. Among the never-say-die isolationists, word had passed around that this was the moment for all-out resistance.

That is the theory, at any rate, of those who led the fight for the Mundt bill. You could almost believe that someone skilled in behind-the-scenes strategy had said:

"All right, boys, now is the time to start going back in the other direction. This international stuff has gone far enough. Let's stop it right here."

The drive on this modest goal—to authorize by law a foreign broadcasting program—exceeded anything heard in recent months. By comparison, the opposition to the Greek-Turkish aid bill was a mere whisper.

Every stop on the isolationist organ was pulled out. There were the perfectionists who said we shouldn't do anything for those foreigners until we had made everybody happy here at home. Trembling doubters said that if we let foreign professors and foreign students into this country under the cultural exchange program, our own American students would be corrupted by sinister isms. Those who took this crystal line—pure isolationist line—didn't seem to realize that it was an insult to the integrity of American youth to say their convictions would yield before the slightest contact with a foreign viewpoint.

The World and the Mud Puddles

WANTED—CO-OPERATION

The President is anxious for merchants having anything to sell, to get the price of those things which they do sell, but how are prices going to be cut when nearly every worker is striking and the Unions seem to be never satisfied with what they are receiving—striking one day for twenty-five cents more an hour, another day for fifteen cents and another day for twelve and one-half cents; always more. Consequently the factories making the commodities for them, even by raising their prices. Why? Because the workers are not even making an effort to do better work; to turn out more goods today than they did yesterday. It is to a great extent, a desire to do less work; in fact one of the bones of contention between Labor and Capital is the constant demand that the hours of labor be cut down.

The organizers, the labor leaders and the managers agree on the necessity for full production. In a recent survey by "Mill and Factory," a leading industrial magazine this principle is agreed to by such Union leaders as William Green, Philip Murray, John L. Lewis, John P. Frey, Emil Rieve of the ship builders and others. The survey included expressions from the automobile industry, the textile, motion picture, grocery and tool industries. Their declarations were unanimous in favor of full production as a vital need of the country.

Job Is Two-Sided
The job is a two-sided one, of course. Labor must give a full day's work for a full day's pay. Management must do its utmost to improve technical methods, provide the best working conditions and offer compensation incentives. There must be a realization on both sides that failure may bring about a serious recession, with the possibilities of serious unemployment. More than that, there must be a spirit of harmony, real co-operation and mutual respect. Maximum production cannot be expected when one party, or both, may be inclined to think of the other as an "enemy" instead of a friend.

So long as leaders of both labor and management have gone on record publicly in recognition of full production as an antidote for high prices and inflation, is there any sound reason why they should not get together and try it?

BILLIONS FOR VACATIONS

By the end of the year Americans will have spent from $6,000,000,000 to $10,000,000,000 on vacations, the Department of Commerce estimates.

But everyone connected with the business of catering to vacationers advises that reservations for a summer vacation be made early with the warning that the demand will exceed the supply. During the war many resorts were permitted to deteriorate and there hasn't been enough rebuilding to accommodate all those who want to go away this summer. Prices will not be what they formerly were, either.

Undaunted by these drawbacks, America's pleasure-loving millions are ready to get on the move again. They want to travel to see things, they want to play in the great outdoors, and they intend to do so in record numbers and without any more delays "until next year." It is the pioneer "call of the trail" become the "call of the highway." And it is just as beneficial to get away once a year from the routine as it is American to have the right to do so.

We have now come to the time of year when many a rookie pitching wonder of the 1947 spring season fades like a June rose.

The old fashioned girl who won the popularity contest in the Jonesburg Bugle now has a daughter who is Miss Roaring Beach of 1947.

Our modern science is revolutionary. With the invention of safety razors and electric shavers there are very few razor straps nowadays with which to warm little Willie's pants.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

APPRECIATE YOUR CHILD'S IMAGINATION

Any parent who will write down the yarns spun by a little child and then check these yarns against what the youngster was known to have seen or heard or experienced otherwise, will gain an appreciation of how powerful impressions can be on the mind and heart of this child. He will conclude that the child's thoughts and behavior are influenced by everything his ears and eyes have been exposed to, especially where deep emotions have been involved. In consequence, this parent will be more concerned about what the child is exposed to on the air and screen.

A mother writes: "Recently we read to our two children about Bambi who lost his mother. June, four years old, said: 'Poor little Bambi. I wouldn't want to lose my mother.' Last night after June went to bed she talked to herself as follows, I taking it down in shorthand from the next room where she did not see me:

The Child's Story
"Once a little girl didn't have no-o-o mommy. She cried and cried. She had a daddy and a brother and a grandma and a grandpa. But she didn't get a mommy, and she cried."

"One day she went out of the house. She went in the street. Anybody wasn't there. It was still night. But it was morning, too. She saw a cat. The cat didn't have any mommy either, but he didn't matter very much. Just little baby cats got mommies."

"So she saw a dog, too. The dog had a lady. He guessed she was his mommy. She looked and looked and looked. And what do you think? There was her mommy. All the time she never, never didn't cry any more cause she got her mommy!"

Movie Attendance
Consider what many children as young as June listen to on the air and see and hear on the screen. Wise parents don't let their children begin movie attendance before the age of eight or nine. They also protect the child up to twelve or so (Continued on Next Page)

State Police Say:

You may be next! Of course, you are going to do everything within your power to keep out of accidents, but if you are unfortunate enough to be involved in one, be sure to: Warn oncoming traffic, especially at night. Too often a minor traffic accident has turned into a serious one because approaching drivers had little or no warning. Send for medical aid at once for injured persons. If you have had First Aid training, do what you can yourself to help until the doctor arrives.

From Me To You

By MESEALL

We are almost afraid to say anything about tonight... the remarks will start however with the phrase... Weather permitting, the dedication of the new Flaherty Field will take place... and hundreds of local fans are looking forward to a real time... and to many weeks of good times when it will be possible to see genuine baseball at night right in this up and coming community. So see to it... that you behave like ladies and gentlemen... and not like dem bums.

Say mister motorist... have you noticed the new white lines on the various streets about town... the cross walks and safety zones are nice and bright... but a new line has been added. On Highland-Mill street a line down the center of the street extends from Wallace to Washington... it was the thought by safety minded Cecil Suber... Lieutenant of Police that this line might help motorists to remember that no double parking is permitted on narrow Mill street... Checks by police officers on this beat... show that many motorists are obeying the law and that double parking is much less than before the line was painted on the street. Other sections of town will be tested... and who knows... maybe the boys have something.

Another little safety item that might entertain our attention... in the olden days before autos were so many... it was popular to drive the horse and buggy out of the old harbor road... stop along the old canal and have a picnic and then take a dip in the river... This was a dangerous sport... the swimming we mean... for there were several deep pools with a sort of undertow that sucked down various swimmers... causing many to lose their life... The river is still dangerous and soon there will be a new road along the river... the highspeed highway to Ohio... and maybe again it will become a popular place to stop and have a picnic... But let's not permit swimming just any place... now is the time for the proper officials to look into the matter... it will be impossible to patrol every yard of river bank... so another scheme will have to be developed... Do we hear any comments?

Bible Thought

Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us; for it is written, Cursed is everyone that hangeth on a tree. Galatians 3:13.

Looking At Life

By Erich Brandeis

"52 Against You" is the slogan of the year-round safety campaign conducted by the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, and since the chairman of the Women's Division, Mrs. Valley M. Knudsen, wrote me such a nice letter asking me to tell people something about it, I shall be glad to comply.

I shall be particularly glad to comply, because I am writing this with one of my fingers bandaged after cutting it while trying to pare an apple, and because my wife sprained her ankle yesterday as she was going down the cellar steps without turning on the light on the stairs.

The bulletin issued by the Chamber of Commerce lists but 52 hazards encountered in the home.

I can list at least 152. But they are absolutely right when they say that there are infinitely more accidents in the home than in the streets and on the highways, although the home accidents usually are not fatal and much less glamorous than being smashed up in an automobile.

For instance, in the twenty-five years my wife and I have been married she has cut herself at least five hundred times while slicing bread. I wish you could see the way she does it.

I have told her dozens of times how to slice bread the right way and cut myself a half dozen times shaving her hair.

DECORATING LIVING ROOM WINDOWS

Question: My living room has five windows. Could you give me any hints about decorating them... whether I should use draperies or merely glass curtains?

Answer: The windows should be dressed uniformly. You may use draperies if you wish. If so, they should be of a plain rather than a striking pattern. Let the view from the windows, as well as the objects in the room, supply your decorative effect and in this way avoid the confusion of overemphasis.

Question: Is it necessary to have a ceiling light in a living room or dining room? I prefer to omit them in my home, but wonder if I am mistaken in this idea.

Answer: Most rooms are improved by the lack of ceiling fixtures. Wall sconces give better light and produce a more attractive effect on women's faces. So, unless you have very high-ceilinged rooms, where the upper part would be in a shadow (or unless they are French rooms requiring crystal chandeliers) you may correctly omit ceiling lights.

Question: Is it proper to have pillows on one's livingroom sofa or are they too suggestive of a boudoir?

Answer: It is absolutely correct to grace your divan with many pillows. If yours is covered in a plain or somber shade of material, your pillows may be colorful, of course, harmonizing with the color scheme of your room. A sofa or divan having a figured covering will look better if its pillows are quiet in design and plain in color. The richer the sofa cover, the less conspicuous the pillows should be.

Question: Is it flanne off fiancée and does it refer to the engaged man or to the woman?

Answer: Flance is the term applied to an engaged man. Flance is the feminine form of this word. Both are pronounced fep-ahn-say.

FOREST AND FIRE

A forest is a lovely thing. The gift of nature unto man; Within its depths the song birds sing; Its paths great leafy archways span. And there it is God's creatures dwell. And there are fruits and flower and fern.

But grim the narratives they tell Who once have seen a forest burn.

A forest is a treasure store Where man for peace and wealth may go. And yet, in all our woodland lore, Man is the forest's fiercest foe. He loves it! Loves the pine and elm! Yet in his fire he leaves a spark That starts a flame that will overwhelm all living things with fury stark.

Man in a careless mood will throw His lighted cigarette away. And heedless on his way will go, And fire will rage by night and day. Great trees will fall and creatures die. Till all lies desolate and bare. Oh forests! God must wonder why Man gives to you so little care. (Copyright, 1947, Edgar A. Guest)

Great Game Of Politics

By FRANK R. KENT

(Copyright 1947, By The Baltimore Sun)

Republican Opportunity Seen

WASHINGTON, June 17.—As recently pointed out in this space, even though partially blocked by presidential veto and Administration resistance, it is apparent the Republicans can justly claim—and the country will accord—credit for the major program of tax reduction, debt reduction, curtailment of governmental costs and labor legislation—all of which are clearly desired.

THEY will have put these proposals through Congress where they had power and responsibility. The degree to which they are watered down or nullified clearly will be Democratic responsibility—largely White House responsibility. From there the party—and Administration opposition—has been fomented. Unquestionably, the Republicans can make out a strong case along these lines—and will. But if they want to make their case stronger and their public support greater, they have a very fine opportunity, indeed.

THIS is presented in the pending proposals: (1) For universal military training; (2) for the unification of the Army and Navy under a single Secretary of National Defense. To Republicans claim—and are entitled to credit for the bipartisan support without which the American foreign policy would be utterly ineffectual. Under the leadership of Senator Vandenberg, the Republicans have raised that policy above the plane of politics, made it possible for us to present a united front on international affairs.

THOUGH both the universal military training and the Army-Navy merger bills are before the Congress as a result of recommendation from President Truman, a Truman commission and a Truman Cabinet, nevertheless there are almost as compelling reasons for bipartisan support of them as for foreign policy, in that both are essential to national defense they are clearly linked to foreign policy. It is axiomatic that foreign policy is effective in the exact ratio that national defense is strong. No nation whose military forces are subject to dual direction or to whose defense resources have become enfeebled and unprepared is in position to assert or sustain anything like the world leadership to which events have committed us.

THERE is nothing new about these proposals. Both have been argued and debated at great length and for a long time. They were both before Congress at the last session with the strong support of the Democratic President, his Cabinet and an imposing array of nonpolitical private citizens and nonpolitical organizations. There press indifference is overwhelming, and it is difficult to deny that both are very much in the national interests. Yet, the Democratic President and the Democratic Congress were unable to put either through at the last session.

NOW, they have been submitted again—this time to a Republican Congress by the Democratic President. The Army-Navy merger bill has been put on the "must" list by Republican Senator Robert A. Taft. Representative Andrews, of New York, and Senator Gurney have moved to present the universal training bill to both House and Senate Armed Services Committees. The Senate committee already has approved the bill unanimously. Hearings in the House will be held, it is said, to a minimum. The hope is to pass both bills before adjournment July 31.

IF THAT is done, it is of course, will be through Republican votes and because Republican leadership has given both proposals the right of way. As a result, the Republicans would greatly strengthen their record. They would have given a demonstration of refusing to play politics when national interests of this kind are involved. They would have shown themselves patriotically above opposing or refusing support to vital and needed legislation solely because it is requested by a Democratic President.

THUS, they would commend their party to the voters and serve the country at the same time. The soundness and the necessity of these bills is generally conceded. They are backed by the great majority of informed and thoughtful men, regardless of party. The real danger now is that they may be lost through inertia or because of a last-minute jam. That has happened before. It is a Republican responsibility to see that it does not happen again. (Distributed by McNaught Syndicate)

The United Nations investigating commission opens its considered deliberations on Palestine Monday and the spotlight of world attention shifts back again to Jerusalem.

It was inevitable that it should be recalled at this historic moment in the destiny of the Holy Land that the name Jerusalem itself means no more or no less than "City of Peace."

If there ever has been a misnomer modern times, it has been that name given even now to a city that is a cross-crossed confusion of barbed-wire entanglements, concentration camps, command posts, fenced-in parking grounds for armored cars, bivouacs, garrisons, barracks and arsenals.

It is to this innocently inhospitable metropolis flanked by deeply revered groves of olive and gentle hills flowing down to the sea that statesmen of the world have come to determine if, when and how some measure of succor can be brought to the hard-pressed and widely divergent peoples of Palestine.

Moment Of Comparative Calm
The Jerusalem meeting opens at a moment of comparative calm as compared with the flaring disturbances of a few weeks ago.

Steps being taken in various parts of the world to settle long-smoldering differences seem to hold out some slight hopes of success in a future that one day appears not too far distant and the next in some far-off realm beyond hopes of realization.

Immediately prior to the Jerusalem meeting at least there was a semblance of order and one that was not necessarily being preserved with British bayonets.

As an example and a precedent, Palestine had only to look toward India—a nation far more divided and far more beset by strife than herself over a period of many decades, which has attained for the meanwhile anyway a superficial veneer of inter-racial and inter-religious calm.

This was the first and perhaps the most significant immediate result of Admiral the Viceroy Mountbatten's "Out of the hat" formula for eventual Indian independence.

Plan Was Presented
Weeks now have passed since Mountbatten sprang upon India and the world his plan for partition and gradual Indian freedom from British rule to be fulfilled in easy stages looking toward dominion status for those states which want it, and complete autonomy for those that vote this way by due processes of electoral law.

There are no grounds for any delusive belief the present hiatus between communal rioting in India is a permanent state of affairs; much less that Palestine is going to remain quiet and accept the United Nations decisions and recommendations without violent opposition both from Jewish and Arab quarters.

But the throat-tearing of the last few weeks and months has ceased; the atmosphere, while martial and bayonet-studded, is not one of uncontrolled mayhem.

And in the troubled world of today, where there is tranquility, plus life, there is hope—a far cry in itself from the bottomless despair of times past.

TRADE WITH JAPAN

Announcement that Japan will be permitted to resume private international trade late this summer raises hope that Asia may be on the road back to normal economic conditions. That road will be long.

Production is still far too low to permit a normal export trade for Japan, and she has impoverished most of her former customers by invading or attacking them. Normal conditions must also await adoption of a peace treaty, which is not yet in sight.

Nevertheless, lifting of the economic blockade represents important progress. It is, in General MacArthur's word, "merely a palliative." Cotton textiles, raw silk and tea will be handled for the time being under U. S. government auspices.

A remaining barrier to a great volume of export trade is the question of exchange rates, to which prices are necessarily tied. Now that 400 selected buyers are permitted to enter Japan on August 15, price discussions have to be on a dollar basis. Japanese sellers what they will eventually be paid in yen. But this is merely a question of which would be easier to solve after the war.

Japan, is an exporting nation. The foreign trade flowing, the less American called upon to spend supporting normal production in Japan, which about foreign trade, will do its share economy, raise standards of living.

Of course, political aspects in the background. Russia has not shown her hand in the war as she has in Europe. The worse the condition of the people is, the more chance the communists have to make headway.

WITHOUT COERCION

Motives and methods poles apart contrast American and Russian influences which apparently are racing for predominance in Europe. With the Russians it is force, infiltration, intimidation. It is the iron curtain. It is the end of individual liberty.

It is the blacking out of democracy in little nations in order to make them serve the double purpose of military bulwarks and barriers against contact by the Russian people with non-communist states.

To those in foreign lands and in America who, with motives innocent or otherwise, have been imputing the same aggression to America, President Truman has replied. In his address to Canada's Parliament he said:

"We intend to support those who are determined to govern themselves in their own way, and who honor the right of others to do likewise," he pledged. "We intend to aid those who seek to live at peace with their neighbors, without coercing and being coerced, without intimidating or being intimidated."

The President's words carry all the implication of America's power and determination not to force other peoples into any pattern of this country's making, but to see that they are given a chance to breathe the air of freedom while fighting their way back to recovery. Whether they will grasp the opportunity remains to be seen.

BILLIONS FOR VACATIONS

By the end of the year Americans will have spent from $6,000,000,000 to $10,000,000,000 on vacations, the Department of Commerce estimates.

But everyone connected with the business of catering to vacationers advises that reservations for a summer vacation be made early with the warning that the demand will exceed the supply. During the war many resorts were permitted to deteriorate and there hasn't been enough rebuilding to accommodate all those who want to go away this summer. Prices will not be what they formerly were, either.

Undaunted by these drawbacks, America's pleasure-loving millions are ready to get on the move again. They want to travel to see things, they want to play in the great outdoors, and they intend to do so in record numbers and without any more delays "until next year." It is the pioneer "call of the trail" become the "call of the highway." And it is just as beneficial to get away once a year from the routine as it is American to have the right to do so.

We have now come to the time of year when many a rookie pitching wonder of the 1947 spring season fades like a June rose.

The old fashioned girl who won the popularity contest in the Jonesburg Raffle now has a daughter who is Miss Roaring Beach of 1947.

Our modern science is revolutionary. With the invention of safety razors and electric shavers there are very few razor straps nowadays with which to warm little Willie's pants.

Hints On Etiquette

When you ask a favor of a person, do say, "Please, will you do so and so?" not, "Do this for me—please," as if the please was an afterthought.

Washington Calling

By Marquis Childs

"Voice Of America" Opposition, Like Plot

WASHINGTON, June 17.—Behind the furious huffing and puffing in the House over the voice of America broadcasts was something very like a concerted plot. Among the never-say-die isolationists, word had passed around that this was the moment for all-out resistance.

That is the theory, at any rate, of those who led the fight for the Mundt bill. You could almost believe that someone skilled in behind-the-scenes strategy had said:

"All right, boys, now is the time to start going back in the other direction. This international stuff has gone far enough. Let's stop it right here."

The drive on this modest goal—to authorize by law a foreign broadcasting program—exceeded anything heard in recent months. By comparison, the opposition to the Greek-Turkish aid bill was a mere whisper. Every step on the isolationist campaign was pulled out. There were the perfectionists who said we shouldn't do anything for those foreigners until we had made everybody happy here at home. Trembling doubters said that if we let foreign professors and foreign students into this country under the cultural exchange program, our own American students would be corrupted by sinister lines. Those who took this crystal ball-pure isolationist line didn't seem to realize that it was an insult to the integrity of American youth to say the convictions would yield before the slightest contact with a foreign viewpoint.

Lead Fight Representative Karl Mundt of South Dakota led the fight for the measure he introduced. Other Republicans on the House floor followed him.

The World and the Mud Puddles

WANTED—CO-OPERATION

The President is anxious for merchants having anything to sell, to offer the price of those things which they do sell, but how are prices going to be set when nearly every worker is striking and the unions seem to be never satisfied with what they are getting? It is a great deal to ask twenty-five cents more an hour, another day for fifteen cents and another day for twelve and one-half cents; always more. Consequently, the factories making the commodities are unable to supply the demand for them, even by raising their prices. Why? Because the workers are not even making an effort to do better work; to turn out more goods today than they did yesterday. It is to a great extent, a desire to do less work. In fact one of the bones of contention between Labor and Capital is the constant demand that the hours of labor be cut down. The organizers, the labor leaders and the managers agree on the necessity for full production. In a recent survey by "Mill and Factory," a leading industrial magazine, this principle is agreed to by such Union leaders as William Green, Philip Murray, John L. Lewis, John P. Frey, Emil Rieve of the textile workers, John Green of the ship builders and others. The survey included expressions from the automobile industry, the textile, motion picture, grocery and tool industries. Their declarations were unanimous in favor of full production as a vital need of the country.

Job Is Two-Sided The job is a two-sided one, of course. Labor must give a full day's work for a full day's pay. Management must do its utmost to improve technical methods, provide the best working conditions and offer compensation incentives. There must be a realization on both sides that failure may bring about a serious recession, with the possibilities of serious unemployment. More than that, there must be a spirit of harmony, real co-operation and mutual respect. Maximum production cannot be expected when one party, or both, may be inclined to think of the other as an "enemy" instead of a friend.

So long as leaders of both labor and management have good on record, publicly in recognition of full production as an antidote for high prices and inflation, is there any sound reason why they should not get together and try it?

CARE FREE BOYHOOD Some people talk about the joys of a care free boyhood. They may never have been boys. They may forget what their boyhood was like. Boys have their troubles just like every body else. The life of a school boy is not all roses.

He has troubles of his own. There are feuds and battles and conflicts unknown to anyone except boys.

A boy may be blamed for poor school work or inattention or lack of interest. The reason for his difficulty may be troubles of his own. Some of his school mates may "know" about it but the teachers may not.

He may be taken to the doctor but the trouble may not be found. Care free. Oh Yeah?

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

APPRECIATE YOUR CHILD'S IMAGINATION

Any parent who will write down the yarns spun by a little child and then check these yarns against what the youngster was known to have seen or heard or experienced otherwise, will gain an appreciation of how powerful impressions can be on the mind and heart of this child. He will conclude that the child's thoughts and behavior are influenced by everything his ears and eyes have been exposed to, especially where deep emotions have been involved. In consequence, this parent will be more concerned about what the child is exposed to on the air and screen.

A mother writes: "Recently we read to our two children about Bambi who lost his mother. June, four years old, said: 'Poor little Bambi. I wouldn't want to lose my mother.' Last night after June went to bed she talked to herself as follows. I taking it down in shorthand from the next room where she did not see me:

The Child's Story

"Once a little girl didn't have no-o-o-mommy. No sir, she didn't have no mommy. She cried and cried. She had a daddy and a brother and a grandma and a grandpa. But she didn't get a mommy, and she cried. "One day she went out of the house. She went in the street. Anybody wasn't there. It was still night. But it was morning, too. She saw a cat. The cat didn't have any mommy either, but he didn't matter about that. He didn't cry. Cats don't get mommies. Just little baby cats got mommies. "So she saw a dog, too. The dog had a lady. He guessed she was his mommy. She looked and looked and looked. And what do you think? There was her mommy. All the time she never, never didn't cry any more cause she got her mommy!"

Movie Attendance

Consider what many children as young as June listen to on the air and see and hear on the screen. Wise parents don't let their children begin movie attendance before the age of eight or nine. They also provide the child with a twelve or so (Continued on Next Page)

State Police Say:

You may be next! Of course, you are going to do everything within your power to keep out of accidents, but if you are unfortunate enough to be involved in one, be sure to: Warn oncoming traffic, especially at night. Too often a minor traffic accident has turned into a serious one because approaching drivers had little or no warning. Send for medical aid at once for injured persons. If you have had First Aid training, do what you can yourself to help until the doctor arrives.

From Me To You

By MESEALL

We are almost afraid to say anything about tonight... the remarks we start however with the phrase... Weather permitting, the dedication of the new Fishery Field will take place... and hundreds of local fans are looking forward to a real time... and to many weeks of good times when it will be possible to see genuine baseball at night right in this up and coming community. So see to it... that you behave like ladies and gentlemen... and not like dumb bums.

Say mister motorist... have you noticed the new white lines on the various streets about town... the cross walks and safety zones are nice and bright... but a new line has been added. On Highland-Mill street a line down the center of the street extends from Wallace to Washington... it was the thought by safety minded Cecil Suber... Lieutenant of Police that this line might help motorists to remember that no double parking is permitted on narrow Mill Street... Checks by police officers on this beat... show that many motorists are obeying the law and that double parking is much less than before the line was painted on the street. Other sections of town will be tested... and who knows... maybe the boys have something.

Another little safety item that might entertain our attention... in the older days before autos were so many... it was popular to drive the horse and buggy out the old harbor road... stop along the old canal and have a picnic and then take a dip in the river... This was a dangerous sport... the swimming we mean... for there were several deep pools with a sort of undertow that sucked down various swimmers... causing many to lose their life... The river is still dangerous and soon there will be a new road along the river... the highest highway to Ohio... and maybe again it will become a popular place to stop and have a picnic... But let's not permit swimming just any place... now is the time for the proper officials to look into the matter... It will be impossible to patrol every yard of river bank... so another scheme will have to be developed... Do we hear any comments?

Looking At Life

By Erich Brandeis

"32 Against You" is the slogan of the year-round safety campaign conducted by the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, and since the chairman of the Women's Division, Mrs. Valley M. Knudsen, wrote me such a nice letter asking me to tell people something about it, I shall be glad to comply.

I shall be particularly glad to comply, because I am writing this with one of my fingers bandaged after cutting it while trying to pare an apple, and because my wife sprained her ankle yesterday as she was going down the cellar steps without turning on the light on the stairs.

The bulletin issued by the Chamber of Commerce lists but 52 hazards encountered in the home. I can list at least 152. But they are absolutely right when they say that there are infinitely more accidents in the home than in the streets and on the highways, although the home accidents usually are not fatal and much less glamorous than being smashed up in an automobile.

For instance, in the twenty-five years my wife and I have been married she has cut herself at least five hundred times while slicing bread. I wish you could see the way she does it. I have told her dozens of times how to slice bread the right way and cut myself a half dozen times showing her how. But she still insists on taking the loaf in her left hand and cutting (Continued On Page Five)

DECORATING LIVING ROOM WINDOWS

Question: My living room has five windows. Could you give me any hints about decorating them... whether I should use draperies or merely plain curtains? Answer: The windows should be dressed uniformly. You may use draperies if you wish. If so, they should be of a plain rather than a striking pattern. Let the view from the windows, as well as the objects in the room, supply your decorative effect and in this way avoid the confusion of overpatterning.

Question: Is it necessary to have a ceiling light in a living room or dining room? I prefer to omit them in my home, but wonder if I am mistaken in this idea. Answer: Most rooms are improved by the lack of ceiling fixtures. Wall sconces give better light and produce a more attractive effect on women's faces. So, unless you have very high-ceilinged rooms, where the upper part would be in shadow (or unless they are French rooms requiring crystal chandeliers) you may correctly omit ceiling lights.

Question: Is it proper to have pillows on one's livingroom sofa or are they too suggestive of a boudoir? Answer: It is absolutely correct to grace your divan with many pillows. If yours is covered in a plain or neutral shade of material, your pillows may be colorful, of course, harmonizing with the color scheme of your room. A sofa or divan having a figured covering will look better if its pillows are quiet in design and plain in color. The richer the sofa cover, the less conspicuous the pillows should be.

Question: Is it finance off fiancée and does it refer to the engaged man or to the woman? Answer: Fiance is the term applied to an engaged man. Fiancee is the feminine form of this word. Both are pronounced fee-ahn-say.

FOREST AND FIRE

A forest is a lovely thing. The gift of nature unto man; Within its depths the song birds sing; Its paths great leafy archways span. And there it is God's creatures dwell. And there are fruits and flower and fern. But grim the narratives they tell Who once have seen a forest burn.

A forest is a treasure store Where man for peace and wealth may go. And yet, in all our woodland lore, Man is the forest's fiercest foe. He loves the forest's pine and elm; Yet in his fire he leaves a spark That starts a flame that will o'erwhelm All living things with fury stark.

Man in a careless mood will throw His lighted cigarette away, And heedless on his way will go. And fire will rage by night and day. Great trees will fall and creatures die. The all lies desolate and bare. O man, forest! God must wonder why Man gives to you so little care. (Copyright, 1947, Edgar A. Guest)

Great Game Of Politics

Republican Opportunity Seen

WASHINGTON, June 17.—As recently pointed out in this space, even though partially blocked by presidential veto and Administration resistance, it is apparent the Republicans can justify claim—and the country will accord credit for the major program of tax reduction, debt reduction, curtailment of governmental costs and labor legislation—all of which are clearly desired.

THEY will have put these proposals through Congress where they had power and responsibility. The degree to which they are watered down or nullified clearly will be Democratic responsibility—largely House responsibility. From there the party—and Administration opposition—has been fomented. Unquestionably, the Republicans can make out a strong case along these lines—and will. But if they want to make their case stronger and their public support greater, they have a very fine opportunity, indeed.

THIS is presented in the pending proposals: (1) For universal military training; (2) for the unification of the Army and Navy under a single Secretary of National Defense. The Republicans claim—and are entitled to—credit for the bipartisan support without which the American foreign policy would be utterly ineffectual. Under the leadership of Senator Vandenberg, the Republicans have raised that policy above the plane of politics, made it possible for us to present a united front on international affairs.

Shenango Street
'Y' Makes Plans
For Busy Summer

Shenango Street Y.M.C.A. has completed plans for a lively summer program for its members. Prominent in the plans is the camping period which the branch will observe at Camp Fred L. Rentz, the week of August 10-17. Last year 55 young members enjoyed the first such period ever held, and this summer, the camp committee, headed by Berl Hall, is expecting at least 70 boys to take part in the program.

Already having leased their playground to the city recreation department for community use, the branch is aiming to provide recreation in the form of movies, which will be shown twice a week.

Immediate programs at the branch consist of a formal party given by the junior Hi-Y boys on Wednesday, June 18, a picnic-hike by the junior Co-eds on June 20. Overnight hikes are also being contemplated by the activities committee of the branch.

Tonight the Co-ed club of the Shenango street 'Y' and the Elm street Y.W.C.A. will meet in the Elm street branch at 8 o'clock.

Rattler Mystery
Solved In Ellwood

Mystery of the 50-inch rattlesnake, which was drawing crowds to the tube mill side of the Ewing Park bridge in Ellwood City, has been solved.

No longer will jittery parents have to keep Johnny and Mary locked in their play-pens lest they fall prey to one of the deadly reptiles. There has been no invasion into this region of the lethal diamondbacks—the snake was part of a carnival act and had died when the show played Ellwood.

Probably discarded by the traveling show, some practical jokers with distorted senses of humor, carried the big snake to the bridge approach and laid it there for all to see. Needless to say, such an exhibition caused a flock of explanations and theories.

The diamondback's usual habitat is Georgia, Alabama and south to Florida, while the western species, called the "red rattler" is found in Texas, Arizona and New Mexico. Herpetologists have never seen the giant reptiles stray this far north.

Will Call Wallace
As First Witness

WASHINGTON, June 17.—(INS)—Henry Wallace will be the first witness for the defense in the mass conspiracy trial of 16 officers of an alleged communist front organization charged with contempt of Congress, it was announced today.

The former vice president was served with a subpoena last night on the platform at the outdoor rally of the Southern Conference for Human Welfare which has also been designated as a communist front by the House Un-American Activities committee. Wallace addressed the rally.

SELECTING JURY

PLYMOUTH, Mass., June 17.—(INS)—One juror and two alternates remain to be chosen today in the trial of Mrs. Bertha Surprise Cole, 28, charged with the "Christ-mas Tree" slaying of her husband, Rene, 35.

After the jury is completed, Mrs. Cole will return to the Brockton attic apartment where her husband was bludgeoned to death.

Court officials estimated that the remaining jurors will be selected by noon and that the jury and defendant will then make the trip to Brockton to visit the scene of the murder last Dec. 28.

toward herself, thus giving me near-heart failure every time I watch her, and occasionally slicing her own finger.

(She sees every one of my columns before I give it to my editors, so now she'll tell me again that she has about as much privacy as a goldfish. And then I'll reply that's what you get for being a newspaperman's wife.)

If you have read my column for any length of time you may remember the time I fell down a whole flight of stairs because we had no night light in the hall. It was exceedingly painful and then I had a number of letters telling me that I was a darn fool and how easily I could have avoided such an accident.

Unfortunately the writers were correct.

Most home accidents can be avoided by using ordinary care. But the trouble is that familiarity breeds contempt, and so we think we don't have to be careful because we know everything in our homes so well.

And, thinking that, we become careless and help a lot of doctors and druggists to get rich.

By the way, if you want to avoid any or all of those 52 potential home accidents (or try some of them) write to the Women's Division of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce and they'll send you a bulletin listing them.

And now that I have given their safety campaign all this free publicity, will they please send me a few packages of cotton and gauze. I'll need them for my next accident.

WASHINGTON

fairs committee served as blocking tactics to beat down the obstructionist tactics of the Isolationists.

Likewise, most of the opposition came from Republicans. In the opening debate, the only Democrat to speak against the bill was Mississippi's representative John E. Rankin.

Significantly, in view of the contest just a year away, this had the look of an intra-party fight. It suggests that the Republicans are split in much the same way that the party of President Truman and Henry Wallace is split.

Responsible Republican leaders who reject Isolationism are doing some serious thinking about next year in terms of this intra-party division. They are aware of the power of Col. Robert R. McCormick and his Chicago Tribune, which just celebrated its centennial with a great fanfare of self-acclaim.

They are aware, too, that one of the Tribune's pets, Senator C. Wayland Brooks of Illinois, will be running for re-election in 1948. How Brooks can run on a platform that would be acceptable to Harold Stassen, Senator Vandenberg or Governor nor Dewey and his adviser on foreign affairs, John Foster Dulles, is one of those political problems that are usually met by trying to pretend that the right hand knows nothing of what the left hand is up to.

From Middle West

Of the 20 house members who spoke against the Mundt bill in the opening debate on Friday, 13 could be broadly classified as from the middle west. Three were from Illinois, two from Michigan and two from Nebraska. This is the geography of the hard core of Isolationism.

On the other hand, of course, Mundt is from South Dakota. And two were for the bill. Representatives Dirksen and Busbey, are from Illinois. In general, however, support has come from the south and the east.

Evidence piles up of the good effects of the state department's modest information program. A recent visitor to India writes of the crowds of Indians of every walk of life who throng to the American libraries maintained in the principal cities. Often throughout the day, lines of people were waiting for a place at a reading table as they would wait in America outside a movie theater.

The senate is likely to accept the Mundt bill with far less fuss. The grim facts of the present day world have worked on the hard core of Isolationism in the upper chamber to reduce it to a small fraction.

One thing the Isolationists in the house have done. They have supplied some useful ammunition for the voice of Moscow, which wants to convince the world that we are about to retire behind our own iron curtain.

PITTSBURGH, June 17.—(INS)—It's getting to be a habit.

For the fifth time this year, the Western Union office on Pittsburgh's North Side was robbed by a lone gunman.

Grace Harman, a clerk, said the robber was a hatless youth with red hair. He fled after taking about $100 from the cash drawer.

Members of the Morin gang, all serving prison terms, admitted the four previous robberies when arrested two months ago.

from exposure to the crime and mystery program on the air—if they have control of their children.

Parents, even some psychologists, have been kidding themselves to believe that the usual crime and mystery stories so widely listened to by children are morally safe, since "the villain always gets his dues." But the punishment for the wrong doing is a very small and incidental item in the episode. All the rest of the story has been so fascinating and the villain so attractive that the innocent young listener may feel sorry for him when he at last is caught and punished.

The youngster may say to himself: "I could have been clever enough to have escaped."

When a child tells about such a story or picture he has heard, he dwells on the details of the crime and quickly passes over the consequences or wholly ignores them. I wish some of the young students of psychology looking for a good field for investigation would gather some reliable data in this field.

Y Makes Plans
For Busy Summer

Shenango Street Y.M.C.A. has completed plans for a lively summer program for its members. Prominent in the plans is the camping period which the branch will observe at Camp Fred L. Rentz, the week of August 10-17. Last year 35 young members enjoyed the first such period ever held, and this summer, the camp committee, headed by Bert Hall, is expecting the least 70 boys to take part in the program.

Already having leased their playground to the city recreation department for community use, the branch is aiming to provide recreation in the form of movies, which will be shown twice a week.

Immediate programs at the branch consist of a formal party given by the junior Hi-Y boys on Wednesday, June 18, a picnic-take by the junior Co-eds on June 20. Overnight hikes are also being contemplated by the activities committee of the branch.

Tonight the Co-ed club of the Shenango Street "Y" and the Elm Street Y.W.C.A. will meet in the Elm Street branch at 8 o'clock.

Gaston Post To Bring Crack Band Here For Parade

Clearfield American Legion Band Will Head Legion Post In Sons Of Italy Parade

Perry S. Gaston Post, American Legion, has engaged the crack 50-piece Clearfield Post band to come here July 4th for the big Sons of Italy parade, which will be held on the afternoon of the Fourth.

This band represented the state of Pennsylvania American Legion at the national convention in San Francisco last fall.

Commander E. Gene Schweinsberg is looking for a big attendance of the post members in the parade.

Arrangements are also being made to stage an open air concert in the city by the band during their stay here that day, as the band is also a fine concert band.

Two Republicans Voted With Truman

WASHINGTON, June 17.—(INS)—With two exceptions, Republicans in the House voted solidly to override the veto of the GOP-sponsored tax bill.

Those voting to sustain the veto were Hull of Wisconsin and Carl Anderson, of Minnesota.

The following Democrats voted to override the President's veto:

Allen, La.; Boykin; Brooks; Bulwinkle; Cox; Davis, Ga.; Davis, Tenn.; Domengaux; Donohue; Dorn; Elliott; Engle, Calif.; Fallon; Gathings; Hebert; Hedrick; Kilgus; Lane; Lacade; Lea; Meade Md.; Morris; Murray, Tenn.; Norrell; Passman; Peterson; Philbin; Preston; Price, Fla.; Redden; Rogers, Fla.; Thomas, Tex.; West; Wilson, Tex.; Wood.

Hart, N. J., was paired in favor of overriding the veto.

Here is the political break down on the vote.

To override the veto—Republicans 233, Democrats, 35.

To sustain the veto—Republicans 2, Democrats, 134; American Labor Party 1.

Arab Boycott Still Effective

JERUSALEM, June 17.—(INS)—A special three-hour secret session designed to circumvent the Arab boycott failed today to solicit official Moslem testimony before the United Nations commission of inquiry on Palestine.

The boycott, invoked by the Arab higher committee executive, remained effective despite an appeal for cooperative broadcast to the country by Chairman Emil Sandstrom.

Moshe Shertok, head of the political department of the Jewish agency, described the boycott as an attempt to "sabotage" the inquiry.

Sandstrom reiterated the commission's intention to tour the Arab villages and towns in an effort to obtain an informal expression of views.

BLASTS OWN VAULT

TOWNVILLE.—(INS)—Willis L. Arnold, Townville funeral director, could have used a little training as a safe-cracker. Arnold purchased the former Townville bank building for use as a funeral home, but couldn't budge the big bank vault—anchored in concrete and reinforced with steel rails.

An air hammer made little impression on the concrete. Other methods failed. Finally Arnold used dynamite and after several blasts the vault came free.

Wallace Threatens New Party In 1948

Blasts President's Foreign Policy In Speech Delivered In Washington

WASHINGTON, June 17.—(INS)—Henry A. Wallace turned to a bit of farming today after literally blasting President Truman's "backyard" to blast the administration's bi-partisan foreign policy and threaten the formation of a new third party in 1948.

Wallace charged the Truman-Marshall-Vandenberg-Dulles foreign program would lead the United States to war or to a serious depression. He urged Mr. Truman to meet Marshal Stalin promptly to draft an accord on peace.

The former vice president plans to depart today for his farm in South Salem, N. Y., after speaking Monday night to a crowd of from 10,000 to 12,000 at the Watergate Amphitheatre along the Potomac.

Three-Point Program
In his Watergate speech, Wallace laid down a three-point foreign program and a lengthy domestic platform for the Truman administration. His foreign program demanded that:

1. Mr. Truman and Secretary of State Marshall meet Stalin and Molotov in Berlin to reach an agreement on all bones of contention between the two nations.
2. The United States ban immediately all international traffic in weapons on war; and specifically the "dangerous practice of arming reactionary governments."

3. The United States abide by article IV of the Atlantic charter which pledged all nations equal access to the raw materials of the world.

Handsome Man And Beauty Queen On Honeymoon

MINNEAPOLIS, June 17.—(INS)—

Miss Quick Freeze, the prettiest blushing bride, and Mr. America, the handsomest man, were honeymooning at a nearby resort today, hoping they could attain the title of plain "Mr. and Mrs."

Miss Grace Pomazal, 19, who holds such beauty titles as "Miss Quick Freeze," "Miss Forget-Me-Not" and "Miss Legionnaire," was married yesterday to Alan Stephan, 23, who was adjudged "Mr. America of 1946" in a contest to determine the nation's handsomest man.

Both hail from the reputed windiest city, Chicago.

After the ceremony, the "body-beautiful" couple commented:

Just Plain "Mr. and Mrs."

"Let's hope we can become just plain Mr. and Mrs."

The bride added:

"And I hope I won't be known now as Mrs. America."

The "body-beautiful" couple was married by the Rev. David R. Rooney at Basilica of St. Mary Cathedral. After the ceremony Miss Quick Freeze belied her title and gave her husband a long and ardent kiss to the delight of a group of cameramen and bobby-sox brigade.

Supporting the body-beautiful theme were the beautiful and manly best man, "Les Slavik of Cicero, Ill., runner-up to the title of "Mr. Chicago of 1946," and the bridesmaid, Miss Charles Chloupska, also of Cicero, a beauty in her own right.

Stephan will open a health studio with the aid of his wife and his best man, Slavik.

Part of this money will be used to form clubs in war ravaged countries abroad, and part of it will be used for exchange of students between the United States and foreign countries.

Rev. Fr. E. C. Kuzminski, new pastor of the Holy Trinity Polish National Catholic church, a former member of the Washington, Pa., club was a guest at the meeting.

Urge Forty To Take Pasteur Treatment

PITTSBURGH, June 17.—(INS)—

City physicians today urged 36 children and four adults, bitten last week when a small fox terrier ran amok, to obtain Pasteur treatments for rabies immediately.

An examination of the terrier's brain yesterday revealed the animal was rabid at the time it ran through school yards snapping at children and adults.

The number of victims was raised to 40 today when reports were received that three additional children and one adult had been bitten.

The dog died yesterday at the Animal Rescue league where it had been under observation since last Thursday.

Meanwhile, Rescue league workers picked up a dozen stray dogs to hold for observation in an effort to prevent a possible outbreak of rabies.

Senate Defeats Tax On Apples

HARRISBURG, June 17.—(INS)—

A House-approved bill proposing a penny-a-bushel tax on apples to finance an apple sales promotion campaign was defeated early today in the Senate by a vote of 29-19.

Sponsored by Rep. George A. Goodling (R) York, the measure was resurrected last week from an earlier death in the Senate Agriculture committee.

Opposition stemmed from belief that creation of a special commission to conduct advertising for apple growers would lead to clamor by growers of other products for similar promotion agencies. The proposed tax would have cost producers only an estimated $100,000 a year.

DEGREE OF HONOR INSPECTION FORMAL

General Inspection of the Degree of Honor in the I. O. O. F. hall Friday evening was a very successful occasion with Mrs. Jennie I. Henry, of Pittsburgh, regional director, present as inspection officer. Flowers in profusion and red, white, and blue streamers decorated the hall and the all-white formal gowns worn by the officers added further to the effectiveness of the inspection setting.

Miss Carol McConnell presented to Mrs. Henry and to Mrs. Pearl Jones corsages, this presentation in charge of Mrs. Eva Drumheller, chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements.

Officers under the leadership of Mrs. Jones, president, were highly commended by Mrs. Henry for their fine exemplification of the ritualistic work of the order and for the class of 30 adult candidates and 26 juniors who were initiated. Mrs. Henry gave the flower charge to new members and at the conclusion said that she was very proud of the lodge for making this her finest inspection to date.

Miss Dorothy McConnell, who graduated from the junior into the senior lodge, was presented with a remembrance by the president.

At the conclusion of business, Mrs. Drumheller, program chairman, was in charge of a flag day program assisted by Mrs. Orpha McConnell, Mrs. Lillian Conner, Mrs. Pearl White, and four standard bearers, Mrs. Ruth Conner, Mrs. Clara Jamison, Mrs. Anna Hawk, and Mrs. Lillian Hunter. Those who took part represented the qualities of Justice, Truth, Mercy, etc.

"Significance of Our Colors" was dramatized by juniors of the order, Margaret Fisher, Valerie Cartwright, Carol McConnell, Sammy White, and Gary White.

Soloist was Mrs. Beatrice McNicholas.

Under the direction of Mrs. Mary Hawk the drill team put on a new drill and a group of several songs were sung by the glee club led by Mrs. Orpha McConnell.

At the close of the program a lunch was served.

Wallace Threatens New Party In 1948

Blasts President's Foreign Policy In Speech Delivered In Washington

WASHINGTON, June 17.—(INS)—Henry A. Wallace turned to a bit of farming today after literally blasting President Truman's "backyard" to blast the administration's bi-partisan foreign policy and threaten the formation of a new third party in 1948.

Wallace charged the Truman-Markham-Wandenberg-Dulles foreign program would lead the United States to war or to a serious depression. He urged Mr. Truman to meet Marshall Stalin promptly to draft an accord on peace.

The former vice president plans to depart today for his farm in South Salem, N. Y., after speaking Monday night to a crowd of from 10,000 to 12,000 at the Watergate Amphitheatre along the Potomac.

Three-Point Program

In his Watergate speech, Wallace laid down a three-point program and a lengthy domestic platform for the Truman administration. His foreign program demanded that:

1. Mr. Truman and Secretary of State Marshall meet Stalin and Molotov in Berlin to reach an agreement on all bones of contention between the two nations.

2. The United States ban immediately all international traffic in weapons on war and specifically the dangerous practice of arming reactionary governments.

3. The United States abide by article IV of the Atlantic charter which pledged all nations equal access to the raw materials of the world.

Urge Forty To Take Pasteur Treatment

PITTSBURGH, June 17.—(INS)—City physicians today urged 36 children and four adults, bitten last week when a small fox terrier ran amok, to obtain Pasteur treatments for rabies immediately.

An examination of the terrier's brain yesterday revealed the animal was rabid at the time it ran through school yards snapping at children and adults.

The number of victims was raised to 40 today when reports were received that three additional children and one adult had been bitten. The dog died yesterday at the Animal Rescue league where it had been under observation since last Thursday.

Meanwhile, Rescue league workers picked up a dozen stray dogs to hold for observation in an effort to prevent a possible outbreak of rabies.

Senate Defeats Tax On Apples

HARRISBURG, June 17.—(INS)—A House-approved bill proposing a penny-a-bushel tax on apples to finance an apple sales promotion campaign was defeated early today in the Senate by a vote of 29-19.

Sponsored by Rep. George A. Goodling (R) York, the measure was resurrected last week from an earlier death in the Senate Agriculture committee.

Opposition stemmed from belief that creation of a special commission to conduct advertising for apple growers would lead to claims by growers of other products for similar promotion agencies. The proposed tax would have cost producers only an estimated $100,000 a year.

Convention Of
Magicians Has
Pittsburgh Wary

Expect All Kinds Of Subtle Tricks
As Brotherhood Assembles
In Steel City

PITTSBURGH, June 17.—(INS)—Pittsburgh had the fidgets Monday—and not without good reason. Jittery bartenders looked with distrust on all strangers, lest real snakes should come slithering out of a scotch and soda.

Hat-check girls feared a rabbit might pop from a proffered hat, or a hat from a rabbit.

Cab drivers looked for a flight of pigeons in their taxis with almost every fare.

The International Brotherhood of Magicians was in town for its annual convention—four days of officially showing each other new tricks, but mostly for foisting their legerdemain upon an unsuspecting public in surroundings not generally given to swallowing decks of cards or stuffing mice into strangers' pockets.

Many At Meeting
About 1,500 stormed into Pittsburgh with their myriad tricks, and a helpless public just held its breath, waited and hoped—but with little hope.

"Anything can happen, and it probably will," wailed the bell captain at the hotel where the sleight-of-hand artists were quartered. "I don't know why they pick on Pittsburgh so often. But there's never a dull moment while they're here."

The convention was to get underway in a manner typical of the legerdemainists. One of them, from Buffalo, was to officially set things in motion with a suitcase in the hotel lobby. When the bell hop picks it up to escort the magician to his room the suitcase explodes, the sides fly out, a huge cloud of smoke arises and a siren starts wailing.

From then on the sky's the limit for four days.

Of course, there will be some official business, like electing officers, but that's really incidental.

Camp East Brook
Plans Materialize

Camp Will Open Monday Afternoon,
June 23, With Staff Of
Capable Counselors

On Monday, June 23, Camp East Brook will be alive again and the first group of happy campers of the local Y. W. C. A. girls will be getting settled for a period of camping.

Gene McIlvaine, camp director, who has completed her college course and has had excellent camp experience, is arranging plans for 12 happy days of healthful outdoor activities for girls in the age range of 6 to 11 years.

Miss McIlvaine will have associated with her as counselors, Miss Gene Elder, of Aliquippa, and Miss Harriet Hoffman, of White Plains, N. Y. Both girls are graduates of college this year, the former from Muskingum and the latter from Boreas College. Miss Mary Tabisz, who has been a friend and counselor to many East Brook campers will be there also. Each have had experience and will give campers the very best in camping that comes from experience and training.

Two junior counselors will assist, with Miss Peggy Gillfillan in charge of music and Miss Jane Hurst, who aided with swimming last year will assist. Miss McIlvaine again this year. Mrs. Chloe Young will be camp nurse and ready for any emergency that might arise.

Ideals of the Y. W. C. A. are materializing as the association have always been happy to have girls who have been campus returns as senior and junior counselors.

It has always seemed best to have campers stay for a 12 day period however if this is inconvenient registrations will be accepted for a 7 day period by calling the Y. W. C. A. for information and making registrations.

Visitors are welcome at Camp East Brook and will be received by the camp committee at any time. The beautiful building is ideally located for safety and vacationing. It is approximately five miles from New Castle on the Harbor-East Brook road near the bridge at East Brook station. Watch for the sign at the left before crossing the bridge over the Neshannock creek.

Girls in the age group of 10-13 will occupy Camp East Brook during July 7-19 and 12-16 years of age from July 21 to August 2. Registrations will be accepted for each age group as more girls can be accommodated.

Board Of Directors
To Meet At Y.W.C.A.

An important meeting of the board of directors will be held Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Y.W.C.A. Officers will be elected and other important business transacted.

Around Hollywood

By JOHN TODD

International News Service Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, June 17.—(INS)—Lovely Katherine Grayson, the thrush, is very frank about one ambition. She'd like to reduce although all the boys around town wonder why.

Said Katherine: "I weigh 123 pounds. I would be much better off if I lost 15 pounds."

Her big brown eyes twinkled before she continued: "The only trouble is that I can eat like a truck driver."

"That makes reducing rather difficult," she said.

Your reporter was talking to Katherine out at M-G-M, where she now is busy in "The Kissing Pirate." She said:

"Why, you'd be positively skinny if you ever succeeded in losing that much weight. We are all against it."

"No, I wouldn't be skinny," Katherine replied. "I am only about 5 feet 3 1/2 inches tall and 108 pounds would be plenty for me."

She sighed and said: "The trouble with me is that I think I'm hungry when I'm not. I guess that is because a singer stretches the muscles down there."

Katherine ran her fingers down her slim waist, then said: "It makes you feel like you're vacant."

Hot lunches are provided daily for 237,407 persons in New Jersey schools under the national school lunch program.

War Fiancee's
Sad Tale Hoax

PHILADELPHIA, June 17.—(INS)—The heart-rending story of a Philadelphia woman that she was a jilted war fiancée and had to sleep in Fairmount Park for a week was revealed as a hoax Monday.

A motorist found the woman, who spoke only a few words of English, wandering in the park and took her to police.

She told park guards and immigration authorities she had been brought to this country from Naples by an American who later abandoned her after promising marriage.

Police said she also related that her family had been wiped out by an air raid. Arrangements were made to transfer her to the immigration station at Gloucester, N. J.

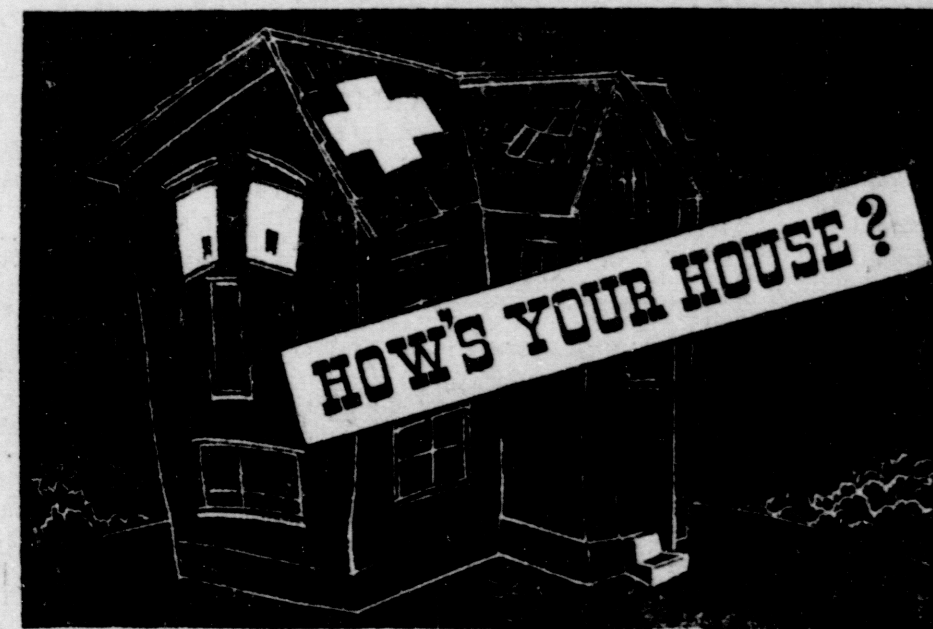

Finally, however, a telephone call from her husband, a war veteran, disclosed that the wanderer was Mrs. Lavango Denato, 26, of Philadelphia.

Denato, who said he married the woman in Philadelphia last April, took her home after a tearful reunion at City Hall. He said his wife's family is still alive in Naples and that Mrs. Denato disappeared only last Saturday.

SCRANTON, Pa., June 17.—(INS)—William Graff, 64, a member of the Scranton fire department for 40 years, died Monday in State hospital from injuries received when he fell downstairs at the fire house while rushing to answer an alarm.

Doctors said Graff's skull was fractured when he landed head first on a concrete floor.

Weatherman Gives Up, Decides To Let Flaherty Field Be Dedicated; National Baseball Congress Opening With Two Fine Games.

At long last the weatherman has decided to let up. Tonight New Castle baseball fans, in a happy holiday mood, will wend their way up Croton avenue and out North Cascade street toward the Paper Mill dam to gaze upon the splendor of the new P. J. Flaherty field with its myriad of floodlights. Shortly after eight o'clock the battery of lights will be turned on, making baseball history in the town founded many years ago by courageous settlers.

Besemer vs Beaver Falls
The first game in the National Baseball Congress will start at 6:30 o'clock, bringing the Besemer team of the Lawrence County league in with the Beaver Falls American Legion. Manager Jim Martin of the Cementers says: "Steamer Stanley will be going to the mound for us."

Beaver Falls Legion is one of the topnotchers in the valley and will give Besemer a tough battle. Dedication At 8:30 P. M.
Following the first game in the district tourney, the long-awaited dedication of Flaherty Field will take place with appropriate ceremonies, chief of which will be a brief speech by P. J. Flaherty, in whose honor the field has been named by the Johnson Bronze Employees association.

Ralph H. Gardner, business manager for the ball park and deputy commissioner for the N. B. C., says: "Everything is in readiness, we are thankful for a nice night, we are anxious to get started."

Jay-Bees vs Mars
With the dedication services over, the Johnson Bronze Jay-Bees team, under Manager "Mike" Diffley will take the field for the first time, meeting the fast Mars Legion team. "We've been ready to go for a week or more now, and will present a snappy line-up of local talent to the fans tonight," Manager Diffley stated.

Two Games Each Night
The pairings as announced by Gardner Monday call for two games each night this week (weather permitting) and through Tuesday, June 24, when the quarter finals will have been reached.

The quarter finals in the district tourney will be held June 25th and 26th. The semi-finals Friday, June 27th. Saturday, June 28th, first game of finals, and consolation game. Sunday, June 29, second game of finals. If a needed third game is played, the date will be announced later.

Yanks Continue Winning Games

Bronx Bombers Edge White Sox 4 To 3 Before 52,000 Fans Monday

By LES CONKLIN
(International News Service Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, June 17.—We present to you the "New" York Yankees.

Since the days of Babe Ruth, the Yanks have relied on home runs to powerhouse them to victory. Now they have discovered that there are other, and equally efficient, ways to win ball games.

The Bronx bombers really played smart baseball in nosing out the Chicago White Sox, 4 to 3, before some 52,000 fans at Yankee stadium last night.

Henrich Is Star
The real hero of the game was "old reliable" Tommy Henrich, who singled and scored New York's first run, then knocked the count with a two-run triple.

In the National league the world champion St. Louis Cardinals, basking in the warm glow of the season, downed the Phillies, 4 to 3, in 10 innings of their night game.

In the only other game of the day, Brooklyn snapped a five-game losing streak. The Dodgers beat the Chicago Cubs, 2 to 1.

Another No-Hitter In Junior Circuit

Tate, Of Wagner Panthers, Hurls Perfect Game; Lockleys Main-tain Winning Streak

Another no-hitter was registered in the American Legion Junior League, Monday evening, when Al Tate, of the Wagner Panthers, held the P.O.E. sponsored team hitless for six innings, while his mates pounded Krash for 11 hits to win 9-0. The Lockleys continued their winning streak in defeating Croton behind the three-hit pitching of Butler.

Every team was in action, and the results were as follows:
PANTHER VICTORY
Bender, Rowland, Gribble and Tate had two hits each in the Wagner Panther victory over the P.O.E. Gribble getting a triple and Rowland, a double. Tate had 14 strikeouts besides hurling hitless ball. Score by innings:

P.O.E. 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0
Wagner Panthers 9 0 11 0
Batteries: P.O.E. — Krash and Smith; Wagner Panthers—Al Tate and Zeigler.

LOCKLEYS WIN AGAIN
Butler hurled effective ball, having six strikeouts and yielding but three hits, as Lockleys defeated Croton A.C. to keep their season's slate clean. Memo of Croton and T. Clarke of Lockleys had doubles, while Nelson hit a triple for the winners. Walford had three singles. Score by innings:

Lockleys 910 220—14 16 3
Batteries: Lockleys—Butler and T. Clarke; Croton A.C. Vitella and Sheehy.

V.F.W. IS WINNER
Post 315, V.F.W. team won from the Ecclesian Club, 12-0, as Simpson hurled a two-hitter. Harry Altman had a homer, and O. Altman and DeMucio had doubles. Pilshaw, H. Altman, Spears and Hoch each had two hits apiece for the winners. Score by innings:

Ecclesian Club 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0
Post 315, V.F.W. 0 34 230—12 14 1

Batteries: Gus' Nine—Gurgiole and Parenti; West Side—Reid and Smith.

MERCHANTS WIN GAME
The East Side Merchants softball team defeated the Shenango "Y" last night in a softball league game 8 to 5. Doran was the winning hurler and Smith the loser.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

P. J. FLAHERTY field activities will be ushered in at 6:30 p. m. today. It deserves the patronage of townspeople, because it is a dream of 25 years standing come true. . . . The fence boards were one inch thick and painted green. . . . Claire Stitt has caught his share of trout this season. . . . Relative to the report of Carmen Pacelli catching a big carp at Conneaut lake, the oddity of the catch is, that he caught it with a fly, something unusual, say the least. . . . Saturday morning Lew Worsham of the Oakmont club, at Washington, Pa., was little known as a golfer. Now he is famous, having captured the Open title in a play-off with Sammy Sneed at the St. Louis Country club.

Sonny Horne and Henry Jordan will perform the fistic honors at Youngstown, June 25, according to Promoter Al Zilli's telephone call today. . . . Pete Ceratti Hurls Shadle Club Into Fourth Place In County League

NEW GALILEE, June 17.—"Pistol" Pete Ceratti muffled the Wayne A.C. here last night on six hits, enabling his team to chalk up an 11-2 victory and take undisputed possession of fourth place in the loop.

The "Hot Tops" pecked away at the offerings of R. Johns, H. Johns and Newton, scoring in each of the first five innings. The biggest cluster came in the fourth when five rallies went across. A total of nine hits were collected, with Joe Guzzetti getting the only "extra-base" wallop, a double.

Billy Pozza Stops Wheeler

Elkins Brothers Wins TKO; Ronzi Defeats Elisco In Three Rounds

CHUCK GIBBONS WINS HIS BOUT

Twelve hundred and forty dollars worth of patrons of the art of hit and miss watched Billy Pozza stop Buddy Wheeler in the second round. Elkins Brothers win a TKO also in the second over George Butnovitch, Rizieri Ronzi take the nod from Guy Elisco and Chuck Gibbons outpoint Jack Butnovitch in The Arena last night where the Jefferson A.C. held an amateur boxing show.

Wheeler, of Youngstown, a lightweight, started as fast as some left job in the opening round but finished just as quickly in the second when Pozza went to work with right and left to his head. Catching Wheeler's left hand, Bill put a right to the temple that felled Wheeler like an ox and he lay quiet while Referee Ray Leyschock counted off 10 seconds.

Brothers and George Butnovitch, the latter of Monaca, put on a lively first round with honors practically even, but in the second Brothers quickened his attack and outclassed George. After he went to the floor the referee picked Butnovitch up and sent him to his corner, thus Brothers gains credit for winning a technical knockout.

The Elisco-Ronzi fight, which was the third, was not as fast as some on the card, due to their mastodon size, but what it lacked in speed was made up in punch and they belabored each other for three rounds with the Youngstown heavyweight being given the decision at the end of the third rounds.

Chuck Gibbons, Ellwood City, boxed Jackie Butnovitch of Monaca at 145. Gibbons forced the going and punched the straighter, in addition to inflicting the most damage. There was plenty of action in the second and Butnovitch's face was claret red in the third. Gibbons won unanimously.

Danny Benedetto Wins
Sueky Harris and Clarence Brown, both light weights, and colored of Youngstown, stepped into the fourth bout. The bell saved Brown in the first when he waited to repose on the canvas, but he made a better try of it in the second. He took the short way out and Harris got credit for a hollow knockout.

Danny Benedetto, Youngstown, and Russ Mills, Monaca, at 150, staged a stirring three round fight. Danny won the split decision, Mills used a left used mainly while Benedetto delivered straight rights. There was slugging throughout. The decision was greeted with a volley of booing.

Joey Butnovitch, Monaca, one of three brothers who boxed last night, met Chuck Bratton, Youngstown at 115. The first round was slow with action in the second and considerable slugging in the third. Joey, a southpaw was given the award.

Billy Weigle, Sharon and Freddy Mays, Youngstown, junior lightweights, boxed the curtain raiser. Weigle had the best of the fight and about three seconds before the final bell had Mays down. The referee, Sam Leyschock, waved him to a corner, but the referee gave a decision and it went to Weigle. The referee were: Ray Leyschock last four bouts and Sam Leyschock, his father, first four bouts; judges, Bob Frazer and Charles Chrozzi; timekeeper, William Pazzone and announcer, Charles P. Walther. The Jefferson A.C. promoted the show.

Frank Cook Hurls One-Hit Victory

Frank Cook, young star pitching sensation of the Duca D'Abuzzi club came within a single of hurling a no-hitter in the city league last night as the Dukes trimmed the Ryantowns in a postponed game, 1 to 0. A blooper hit by Chuck Davis spoiled Cook's no-hit bid.

Robinson hurled a five-hitter for Ryantown and fanned three men, with Cook whiffing six. Paul Coulter had two hits for the Dukes.

VOLANT BLANKS BROOKERS
Fyffe outpitched Stunkard last night as Volant shut out East Brook, 2-0 in a sizzling ball game in the North County loop.

The Volant chucker was as stingy as a Scot on pay-day even when it came to hits, allowing the Brooks but three blows, all singles. Volant could only solve Stunkard for six but they converted them into their two runs in the second frame.

Incidentally Fyffe whacked out a single in that frame to send both runs scampering home and win his own game.

Convention Of
Magicians Has
Pittsburgh Wary

Expect All Kinds Of Subtle Tricks
As Brotherhood Assembles
In Steel City

PITTSBURGH, June 17.—(INS)—Pittsburgh had the fidgets Monday—and not without good reason. Jittery bartenders looked with distrust on all strangers, lest real snakes should come slithering out of a scotch and soda.

Hat-check girls feared a rabbit might pop from a proffered hat, or a hat from a rabbit.

Cab drivers looked for a flight of poodles in their taxis with almost every rate.

The International Brotherhood of Magicians was in town for its annual convention—four days of officially showing each other new tricks, but mostly for fending their legions upon an unsuspecting public in surroundings not generally given to swallowing decks of cards or stuffing mice into strangers' pockets.

Many At Meeting
About 1,500 stormed into Pittsburgh with their myriad tricks, and a helpless public just held its breath, craned and hoped—but with little hope.

"Anything can happen, and it probably will," wailed the bell captain at the hotel where the sleight-of-hand artists were quartered. "I don't know why they pick on Pittsburgh so often. But there's never a dull moment while they're here."

The convention was to go under way in a manner typical of the legions. One of them, from Buffalo, was to officially set things in motion with a suitcase in the hotel lobby. When the bell hop picked it up to escort the magician to his room the suitcase exploded, the sides flew out, a huge cloud of smoke arose and a siren started wailing.

From then on the sky's the limit for four days.

Of course, there will be some official business, like electing officers, but that's really incidental.

Camp East Brook
Plans Materialize

Camp Will Open Monday Afternoon,
June 23, With Staff Of
Capable Counselors

On Monday, June 23, Camp East Brook will be alive again and the first group of happy campers of the local Y. W. C. A. girls will be getting started for a period of camping.

Chloe McVahne, camp director, who has completed her college course and has had excellent camp experience, is arranging plans for 12 happy days of healthful outdoor activities for girls in the age range of 6 to 11 years.

Miss McVahne will have associated with her as counselors, Miss Gene Elmer of Aliquippa, and Miss Harriet Hoffman, of White Plains, N. Y. Both girls are graduates of college this year, the former from Muskingum and the latter from Berea College.

Miss Mary Tabisz, who has been a friend and counselor to many East Brook campers will be there also. Each have had experience and will give campers the very best in camping that comes from experience and training.

Two junior counselors will assist, with Miss Peggy Gilligan in charge of music and Miss Jane Hurst, who aided with swimming last year will assist. Miss Chice Young will be camp nurse and ready for any emergency that might arise.

Ideals of the Y. W. C. A. are materializing as the association here always been happy to have girls who have been campus regattas as senior and junior counselors.

It has always seemed best to have campers stay for a 12 day period however if this is inconvenient registrations will be accepted for a 7 day period by calling the Y. W. C. A. for information and making registrations.

Visitors are welcome at Camp East Brook and will be received by the camp committee at any time. The beautiful building is ideally located for safety and vacationing. It is approximately five miles from New Castle on the Harbor-East Brook road near the bridge at East Brook station. Watch for the sign at the left before crossing the bridge over the Neshannock creek.

Girls in the age group of 10-13 will occupy Camp East Brook during July 7-19 and 12-16 years of age from July 21 to August 2. Registrations will be accepted for each age group as more girls can be accommodated.

Board Of Directors
To Meet At Y.W.C.A.

An important meeting of the board of directors will be held Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Y.W.C.A. Officers will be elected and other important business transacted.

By JOHN TODD
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, June 17.—(INS)—Lovely Katherine Grayson, the thrush, is very frank about one ambition. She'd like to reduce although all the boys around town wonder why.

Said Katherine: "I weigh 123 pounds. I would be much better off if I lost 15 pounds."

Her big brown eyes twinkled before she continued: "The only trouble is that I can eat like four truck drivers."

"That makes reducing rather difficult."

Your reporter was talking to Katherine out at M-G-M, where she now is busy in "The Kissin' Pirate." She said:

"Why, you'd be positively skinny if you ever succeeded in losing that much weight. We are all against it."

"No, I wouldn't be skinny," Katherine replied. "I am only about 5 feet 3 1/2 inches tall and 108 pounds would be plenty for me."

She sighed and said: "The trouble with me is that I think I'm hungry when I'm not. I guess that is because a singer stretches the muscles down there."

Katherine ran her fingers down her slim waist, then said: "It makes you feel like you're vacant."

War Fiancee's
Sad Tale Hoax

PHILADELPHIA, June 17.—(INS)—The heart-rending story of a Philadelphia woman that she was a faked war fiancée and had to sleep in Fairmount Park for a week was revealed as a hoax Monday.

A motorist found the woman, who spoke only a few words of English, wandering in the park and took her to police.

She told park guards and immigration authorities she had been brought to this country from Naples by an American who later abandoned her after promising marriage.

Police said she also related that her family had been wiped out by an air raid. Arrangements were made to transfer her to the immigration station at Gloucester, N. J. Finally, however, a telephone call from her husband, a war veteran, disclosed that the wanderer was Mrs. Lavango Denato, 26, of Philadelphia.

Denato, who said he married the woman in Philadelphia last April, took her home after a tearful reunion at City Hall. He said his wife's family is still alive in Naples and that Mrs. Denato disappeared only last Saturday.

Phillies Sign Young Collegian

PHILADELPHIA, June 17.—(INS)—Dan Casey, Villanova college outfielder, was signed Monday by the Phillies and sent to Vandergrift of the class D Middle Atlantic baseball league.

Casey, who lives in Albany, N. Y., played on Mickey Cochrane's 1943 Great Lakes squad and batted .300.

The Phillies also traded Pitcher Ken Raffensberger and Catcher Hugh Poland to the Cincinnati Reds for Catcher A. Lakeman in a straight player deal.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., June 17.—(INS)—Hudson river traffic hit an all time high in volume and feverish activity today when crews from the University of Washington and Wisconsin joined the bustling little rowing colony.

An unprecedented number of 31 shells took to the water.

Council Orders Payments Made

Request Made For Restaurant Permit On Cascade Street

OTHER NEWS OF COUNCIL SESSION

When council convened Monday in city hall warrants amounting to $1,115.68 were ordered paid to the New Castle Duntle company for work on projects as follows: Cascade Park lake spillway, Sheet street sanitary sewer, Taylor street sanitary sewer and Union street lateral sanitary sewer.

John Lochner, Moravia street and Miller street, complained to council that boys playing baseball at the intersection had caused nine windows to be broken in his house and garage. The complaint was referred to Chief of Police Robert D. Hanna for investigation.

John Hartman requested permission to erect a restaurant in Cascade street, opposite the P. J. Flaherty field. It is a residential zone. However, council referred the request to the zoning commission.

Petition which asked paving of Wilson avenue was ordered returned to the petitioners because of insufficient frontage. Council also indicated money was available this year to pave the city's share along Gaston park.

Two bills were ordered paid, one to the Bell Telephone company for $264.99, and the other to the Pennsylvania Power company, amounting to $5,513.30.

A petition signed by G. C. Syling and John G. Moore, representing lodge 21 of the Fraternal Order of Police, requested a raise in pay for police. The communication was filed.

City Clerk Jack Fritz reported to council that he had received no bids for the OGD equipment the city desired to sell. The equipment consists of three pump units, pump tank extinguishers, helmets, canvas litters and folding canvas cots.

MAY we invite you to visit this week's opening of our newly decorated galleries. It has taken us nearly a year to collect the items of furniture that are now on display, and you'll agree with us that it was well worth the effort. You'll see for the first time the new design trend, "American Informal", a clever blending of traditional and modern design features, fabrics and accessories. Three distinctive groupings: Living Room, Dining Room and Bedroom.

HAYING SEASON FULL OF ACCIDENT HAZARDS

Before starting haying operations check equipment to assure safety and avoid lost time. Haying operations mark the beginning of a season when farm accidents run high. Having machinery, including cutting mechanisms, operate at high speed and need to be handled carefully.

Watch out for defective hitches, ropes, pulleys, lifts, hay racks or ladders. Loft floors need to be in good repair and hay chutes guarded to prevent falls. Mowing equipment should have safety guards in place. Workers must be constantly on the alert to avoid falls from hay racks, stacks and mows.

Watch starts and stops while loading, especially on youth ground. Never dismount from tractors or mowers while they are in operation.

Pitchforks are frequently misused more than any other tool. You cannot afford to take chances with these long, sharp unguarded steel tines. For outside work, carry a pitchfork over your shoulder and stick it securely in the ground when not in use. Don't lay it down. Never throw a pitchfork. See that it is hung up or stored in a rack in the barn. Craple forks are much less hazardous than the harpoon type.

Be sure that the hay is well cured before it is stored in hay mows. Damp hay will heat and start a fire. This is the principal cause of barn fires. Freshly stored hay should be checked regularly for several weeks to see that there are no signs of heating.

Names Briggs As Ambassador To Uruguay

WASHINGTON, June 17.—(INS)—President Truman on Monday nominated Ellis O. Briggs, state department career official, to be United States ambassador to Uruguay.

Briggs' appointment to the Montevideo post has been anticipated ever since the turn for the better in U. S.-Argentine relations and the resignation of Assistant Secretary of State Spruille Braden.

Under Braden, Briggs was director of the Office of American Republic Affairs since October, 1945. Briggs is a foreign service officer who entered the diplomatic service in 1925 after having taught English at Robert College in Constantinople and writing for magazines.

His first post was as vice consul in Lima, Peru, and the greater part of his service has been in the Latin American field. This service has been interrupted only occasionally by special missions to Europe and to China.

Acheson Warns Of U. S. Crisis

MIDDLETOWN, Conn., June 17.—(INS)—The world was warned Monday that Europe is headed for a financial and economic crisis next year which will have repercussions everywhere.

Retiring Undersecretary of State Dean Acheson, made the warning in addressing the graduating class at Wesleyan University, last night. He also charged the Soviet Union of "exploiting, disorganizing and isolating eastern Europe." Acheson said:

"Financially Europe is bleeding to death and the period of shock and crisis will come next year, the crisis will not be purely European. We are today selling twice the value of goods which our customers can pay for with their sales to us."

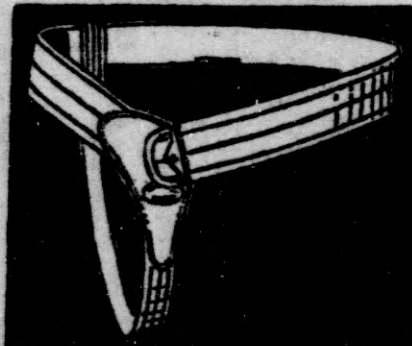

The cochineal dyes, carmine, scarlet, crimson, carmine lake and purple lake, are made from the scale bodies of the female cochineal insects which live in Mexico and Central America.

Outlook Bright For College Men Looking For Jobs

STATE COLLEGE, June 17.—This is a golden era for college seniors graduating into their first jobs.

And the opportunity will be just as great next year, in the opinion of George N. P. Leetch, director of the Placement Service at the Pennsylvania State College.

Pointing out that the demand for technically-trained young men is particularly brisk, Leetch observes that salaries are uniformly high, and that many companies are paying additional wages to men who are veterans.

At Penn State, a record number of 125 firms sent personnel representatives to the campus to interview graduating seniors. Leetch says an average of ten industries, selected at random, shows a starting salary of $245, or twice the average pre-war figure.

Business and industry appear to prefer men graduates, especially married veterans, whereas women graduates for the first time since the war encountered difficulty in obtaining technical jobs.

"But the utilities were interested in women graduates, especially women with degrees in home economics," Leetch declares.

Family See Home Burn Second Time

CONNELLVILLE, Pa., June 17.—(INS)—The Austin Nicholsons today planned to rebuild their home for the third time despite bad luck that had dogged them for 13 years.

Thirteen years ago fire destroyed it the first time. They rebuilt on the same foundation. Last week Nicholson broke his foot and went to a hospital. His wife and children went to see him Saturday.

During their absence fire again destroyed their home.

PIANO STUDENTS TO PRESENT RECITAL

Piano students of William Stuart, will be heard in a recital, Thursday evening, June 19, at 8 o'clock, in the Second Baptist church, North street. The program is sponsored by the Young Macon's Club of the church, and will feature vocal selections, also, by several well known local singers.

National Registrar To Interview Here

Mrs. Dorothy MacPhee, of Kansas City, Mo., national registrar of the National Secretaries Association, has arrived in New Castle and will make her headquarters at The Castle-ton.

Establishment of a chapter in New Castle, Mrs. MacPhee pointed out, would make this the sixth community in Pennsylvania to found one. Chapters of this non-profit, non-sectarian, non-union organization of secretaries have been established in Pittsburgh, Erie, Harrisburg, Altoona and Johnstown, and in Youngstown and Warren, O.

While here Mrs. MacPhee will explain the purposes and advantages of membership to secretaries interested to inquire.

The origin of the term "meander" is the name of a river in ancient geography, which was famous for its many windings through Asia Minor.

Council Orders Payments Made

Request Made For Restaurant Permit On Cascade Street

OTHER NEWS OF COUNCIL SESSION

When council convened Monday in city hall warrants amounting to $11,155.68 were ordered paid to the New Castle Dunlop company for work on projects as follows: Cascade Park lake spillway, sheet street sanitary sewer, Taylor street sanitary sewer and Union street lateral sanitary sewer.

John Lochner, Moravia street and Miller street, complained to council that boys playing baseball at the intersection had caused nine windows to be broken in his house and garage. The complaint was referred to Chief of Police Robert D. Hanna for investigation.

John Hartman requested permission to erect a restaurant in Cascade street, opposite the P. J. Flaherty field. It is a residential zone. However, council referred the request to the zoning commission.

Petition which asked paving of Wilson avenue was ordered returned to the petitioners because of insufficient frontage. Council also indicated money was not available this year to pave the city's share along Gaston park.

Two bills were ordered paid, one to the Bell Telephone company for $264.90, and the other to the Pennsylvania Power company, amounting to $5,513.30.

A petition signed by G. C. Syllor and John G. Moore, representing lodge 21 of the Fraternal Order of Police, requested a raise in pay for police. The communication was filed.

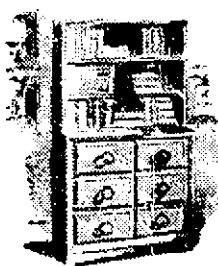

City Clerk Jack Fritz reported to council that he had received no bids for the OGD equipment the city desired to sell. The equipment consists of three pump units, pump tank extinguishers, helmets, canvas litters and folding canvas cots.

HAYING SEASON FULL OF ACCIDENT HAZARDS

Before starting haying operations check equipment to assure safety and avoid loss time. Haying operations mark the beginning of a season when farm accidents run high. Haying machinery, including cutting machines, operate at high speed and need to be handled carefully.

Watch out for defective hitch, ropes, pulleys, lifts, hay racks or ladders. Lift floors need to be in good repair and hay chutes guarded to prevent falls. Mowing equipment should have safety guards in place. Workers must be constantly on the alert to avoid falls from hay racks, stacks and mows.

Watch start and stop while haying, especially on rough ground. Never dismount from tractors or mowers while they are in operation. Pitchforks are frequently misused more than any other tool. You cannot afford to take chances with these long, sharp unguarded steel tines. For outside work, carry a pitchfork over your shoulder and stick it securely in the ground when not in use. Don't lay it down. Never throw a pitchfork. See that it is hung up or stored in a rack in the barn. Grapple forks are much less hazardous than the harpoon type.

Be sure that the hay is well cured before it is stored in hay mows. Dump hay with heat and start a fire. This is the principal cause of barn fires. Freshly stored hay should be checked regularly for several weeks to see that there are no signs of heating.

Names Briggs As Ambassador To Uruguay

WASHINGTON, June 17.—(INS)—President Truman on Monday nominated Ellis O. Briggs, state department career official, to be United States ambassador to Uruguay.

Briggs' appointment to the Montevideo post has been anticipated ever since the turn for the better in U. S.-Argentine relations and the resignation of Assistant Secretary of State Spruille Braden.

Under Braden, Briggs was director of the Office of American Republic Affairs since October, 1945. Briggs is a foreign service officer who entered the diplomatic service in 1925 after having taught English at Robert College in Constantinople and writing for magazines.

His first post was as vice consul in Lima, Peru, and the greater part of his service has been in the Latin American field. This service has been interrupted only occasionally by special missions to Europe and to China.

Acheson Warns Of U. S. Crisis

MIDDLETOWN, Conn., June 17.—(INS)—The world was warned Monday that Europe is headed for a financial and economic crisis next year which will have repercussions everywhere.

Retiring Undersecretary of State Dean Acheson, made the warning in addressing the graduating class at Wesleyan University, last night. He also charged the Soviet Union of "exploiting, disorganizing and looting eastern Europe." Acheson said.

"Essentially Europe is bleeding to death and the period of shock and crisis will come next year, the crisis will not be purely European. We are today selling twice the value of goods which our customers can pay for with their sales to us."

The cochineal dyes, carmine, scarlet, crimson, carmine lake and purple lake, are made from the body of the female cochineal insect, which live in Mexico and Central America.

Outlook Bright For College Men Looking For Jobs

STATE COLLEGE, June 17.—This is a golden era for college seniors graduating into their first jobs.

And the opportunity will be just as great next year, in the opinion of George N. P. Leetch, director of the Placement Service at the Pennsylvania State College.

Pointing out that the demand for technically-trained young men is particularly brisk, Leetch observes that salaries are uniformly high, and that many companies are paying additional wages to men who are veterans.

At Penn State, a record number of 125 firms sent personnel representatives to the campus to interview graduating seniors. Leetch says an average of ten industries, selected at random, shows a starting salary of $245, or twice the average pre-war figure.

Business and industry appear to prefer men graduates, especially married veterans, whereas women graduates for the first time since the war encountered difficulty in obtaining technical jobs.

"But the utilities were interested in women graduates, especially women with degrees in home economics," Leetch declares.

Family See Home Burn Second Time

CONNELLSVILLE, Pa., June 17.—(INS)—The Austin Nicholsons today planned to rebuild their home for the third time despite bad luck that had dogged them for 13 years.

Thirteen years ago fire destroyed it the first time. They rebuilt on the same foundation.

Last week Nicholson broke his foot and went to a hospital. His wife and children went to see him Saturday.

During their absence fire again destroyed their home.

National Registrar To Interview Here

Mrs. Dorothy MacPhee, of Kansas City, Mo., national registrar of the National Secretaries Association, has arrived in New Castle and will make her headquarters at The Castle.

Establishment of a chapter in New Castle, Mrs. MacPhee pointed out, would make this the sixth community in Pennsylvania to found one. Chapters of this non-profit, non-sectarian, non-union organization of secretaries have been established in Pittsburgh, Erie, Harrisburg, Altoona and Johnstown, and in Youngstown and Warren, O. While here Mrs. MacPhee will explain the purposes and advantages of membership to secretaries interested to inquire.

The origin of the term "mean-der" is the name of a river in ancient geography, which was famous for its many windings through Asia Minor.
